

1 According to "Herd Behavior" and "The Party," people often try to fit in.

2. "From the party" shows that people often try to fit in

3. In the short story, the narrator isn't invited to a party that all her friends are invited to. When kids ask her about it, she acts like she knows what's going on because she doesn't want to admit she's not invited.

4 "We had come from different elementary schools and never fit with the predictable middle school jocks, pops, or nerds."

5.

2. "Herd behavior shows people often try to fit in

3. The story says, how the animals follow each other, and they fit in by following.

4 "predator. All of the animals band closely together in a group and, in panic mode, move together as a unit."