

Cpl Arlyn R. Koehn

Location - East-MC: R8, C4

STUDIES COURSE IN ADVANCED TECHNIQUES

— 8-8-51
Cpl. Arlyn R. Koehn, 20, of 241 Sawyer avenue, is receiving a course of instruction in advanced amphibious techniques at Little Creek amphibious training base, Norfolk, Va.

A member of an infantry battalion, Second marine division, he will spend two weeks there as a student in the marine corps Atlantic troop training unit's basic troop amphibious school. Instruction will include boat drills, combat loading principles, naval customs and terminology, naval and air support and allied subjects.

Corporal Koehn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Koehn of this city and is married to the former Miss Frieda C. Thiel. He graduated from Oshkosh High school in 1948 and enlisted in the marine corps that same year.

8-8-51

Cpl Arlyn R. Koehn
Class of 1948
U.S. Marine Corps:
1948-?