

Reviewed September 2024

Membership Agreement:

By joining any student group you are agreeing to the terms and conditions of membership and the code of conduct. Group memberships can be bought at any time throughout the academic year, all annual memberships expire on the last day of term.

The cost of each group membership may, for example, cover use of facilities, equipment and provision of coaches. This is subject to each group's budget and should be outlined on the group page.

Eligibility

You must be a full member of the Union to be eligible to join student groups. Membership of the Union is automatic for current University of Portsmouth students and no purchase is necessary.

Data Protection

We may process your personal information for carefully considered and specific purposes which are in the interests of delivering and enhancing our services as well as adding benefit for our members. The Students' Union is required by some national governing representative bodies to share certain personal data with to enable your affiliation with them (mainly sporting clubs). A full list of third parties who your data may be shared with along with our data protection commitments can be found at <https://upsu.net/your-union/privacy>

Original:

By purchasing this membership, you are agreeing to allow the Union to process your data for purposes relating to group activity. The Union will only share your data with third parties who need this data for the purpose of your involvement in group activity.