

i know these are longer than most people's rules these days and i'm sorry for that but i'm hella stressed about leaving things out so here we go

BASICS & MUN INFO → 😊!

♥ my aziraphale portrayal is primarily book-based, but i do take the series into consideration and i love writing with series-based portrayals. slightly canon divergent from the end of season 2, check my verses page for more on that please. headcanon-heavy. selective. i am not associated with good omens, the authors, the show, the actors, etc.

♥ hey, i'm only! 25, they/them, queer ace agender. i have ADHD, i'm slogging through college, and i'm running another blog, so activity may be choppy at times, please be patient with me. i'm also autistic and can have trouble reading tone from text, so i'd really appreciate if you clarify any major use of sarcasm when talking to me ooc (not necessary in character). i know some people hate tone indicators and i won't make you use them, but they do help me.

♥ i am not religious in any form, so if i get things wrong in an offensive way, please let me know! Things will probably get blasphemous around here, as is the nature of the book and series, so if you're really affected by that kind of thing then this is not the blog for you.

♥ i am also not my muse. aziraphale sees humanity through a very different lens from the rest of us, (he can have a very flippant attitude towards things like mortality, for example,) please don't assume that his views are mine.

♥ i mostly use ben whishaw as my fc, since he was my original choice when i first made this blog pre-show and i still like his expressions. ben whishaw icons are from hollow-art (list of used posts here), border and texture are courtesy of bambi, aka prosesang, who made it for me and gave me permission to use it.

♥ triggers: i'd appreciate if people tagged graphic content of car crashes and needles. i blanket tag any potential triggers with the format "trigger /", i tag "trigger cw" when something comes up in my writing, and i tag "trigger tw" for visual triggers. please let me know if i don't tag something i should have and i will correct the matter immediately, no questions asked.

♥ no homophobia, transphobia, racism, incest, noncon, pedophilia, etc. no bigots, no trump supporters. fuck off with that shit.

♥ please don't reblog any of my headcanons, drabbles or ooc posts unless i tag them as 'rebloggable'. i am okay with personals, but if you like or reblog my threads or anything that i've specifically asked you not to, that's an instant block. and please for the love of fuck if i ask you to delete something you reblogged from me, don't argue with me about it. i'm allowed to control the exposure of the things i create.

♥ anyone is free to reblog memes directly from me with or without sending one in, i don't mind!

WRITING → 😊!

♥ like i said above, i'm not selective about book canon vs. series canon for interactions, so i'm happy to write with anyone book-based and series-based alike. i do tend to characterize aziraphale more along the lines of the novel, where he is much more settled in himself, much less inclined to agree with heaven, and far bitchier.

♥ re: season 2 of the show, everything's pretty much the same except that i'm not following the canon ending where aziraphale gives the bookshop to muriel and goes to stay in heaven after taking the promotion. i feel like book-based aziraphale would be much more suspicious of the metatron and make slightly different plans, so please check my verses page to see what i've decided on. i am willing to roll with series canon for a thread if requested, just ask and i will happily oblige!

♥ i prefer to write with mutuals. i do not do follow-for-follow. mutuals are free to tag me/mention me in anything at any time. memes and asks are welcome from anyone, mutual or not, and there is no expiration date so send whatever you want whenever you want! anyone is welcome to turn an ask response into a thread. i'm a-okay with duplicates and writing with duplicates.

♥ this blog is multiverse and multiship. no verse will overlap unless it has been planned out and agreed to by all parties involved. i am crossover friendly, oc friendly, and au friendly.

♥ i'm open to assuming a prior relationship between my character and yours, but only if you message me about it and we can plot it out a little first. please don't throw me in the deep end with a relationship or events that i don't know about beforehand. i am okay with angelic/demonic characters knowing aziraphale or about him beforehand, but i would appreciate having some idea if there's a history there or not.

♥ i am comfortable with writing one-liners, para, multi-para, novella, anything really. i am comfortable using icons/gifs in threads and with not using icons at all. YOU ABSOLUTELY DO NOT HAVE TO MATCH ME FOR LENGTH! i have a tendency to get carried away with my writing, as long as you give me something to work with in your reply, the length doesn't matter to me.

♥ formatting: i double-space between words and often use capitalization, bold, italics, and underline for emphasis. if my formatting makes things hard to read, please let me know so i can change it for you! you definitely don't have to match my formatting, please format however you'd like.

♥ don't godmod. it can get weird when all characters involved in a thread have inhuman abilities, but if you want to do something that drastically affects my character or the location, please just ask if it's okay ahead of time. i will do the same.

♥ re: heavenly characters & other angels, i'm deeply uncomfortable with the idea i've seen expressed that heaven are the "homophobic relatives". everyone's free to their own interpretations, but please don't bring that here.

SHIPPING & NSFW → 😊!

♥ i ship based on chemistry and communication first and foremost. i am open to ships other than aziraphale/crowley if the chemistry is good, but bear in mind that i will probably only ship with characters 25+ given aziraphale's age and maturity. also please bear in mind that i write aziraphale as being queer as hell.

♥ i will not ship with anyone under 18, period. i won't write pedophilia, incest, rape, etc. and if you bring it to me as a plot i will block you.

♥ i write aziraphale as loving crowley in every way imaginable — especially romantically and queer-platonically — and they will be the primary ship on this blog, but i won't assume romantic interest from crowley blogs unless agreed upon beforehand.

♥ i am of age to write nsfw, but i'm not inclined to write explicit sexual content. i am willing to do time-skips and blackouts if the occasion arises, but it's very unlikely.

EXCLUSIVITY → 😊!

♥ tbh it makes me anxious so i do not do it, sorry.

that's about it, thanks for reading. 🙌
