Dear [mention the name of your wife]

It's your silver jubilee and it is as special as you are to me. I will be always thankful to the almighty for this day and I wish that you enjoy many new and amazing things in this new age of your life. May the key of new opportunities open for you in this coming year.

The way you make my each and every moment a special one I wish to do the same to you but I know I failed to do it, I know I have many bad things but trust me my love no one can ever love you the way I do. You are that woman with whom I wish to spend the rest of my life and for you, my dream actually came true. I will always try to give my best, I know I am a very difficult man but the way you handled me is something I can never forget.

So this is your birthday, the day when you came to this world 25 years ago, the day when my fate decided to bless me with such wonderful women like you. You are someone with whom I can share each and everything shamelessly, with your one smile my day can be a beautiful one. You are someone who has made me a completely different man. I really love you a lot. Happy Birthday my sweetheart.

Your love,[mention your name]
