

Email 2: The Forum

SL: In order to maximize your reading experience, don't overlook this crucial aspect.

You see, there are 2 aspects to reading.

First, your own experience...

Which starts with the first time you open a book, smell its pages, and surrender to the emotional roller coaster of its story, riding it all the way to the final sentence of the final page.

The second is sharing that experience.

As you know, when someone comes across something that excites him/her, they tend to talk about it...

"Sharing" is a trait of human nature...is how we learn and grow.

Now, there exists a place where you can share your most treasured reads...

With hundreds of fellow readers, inside our forum.

Within the forum, you can review, recommend and create reading groups.

Learning and growing together.

(FORUM LINK)

I am waiting for your favorite story...

See you inside.