

Privacy Policy

App Name: Rayrefect Maze

Last Updated: June 8, 2026

Effective Date: June 8, 2026

This document serves as the official privacy disclosure for Rayrefect Maze, a mobile application distributed across global regions via the Google Play platform. All users who download, install, launch and use this application shall be deemed to have fully read, understood and voluntarily accept the terms stipulated in this Privacy Policy.

This policy complies with Google Play's Data Safety regulations, the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) and other mainstream international privacy laws and regulations to protect your legitimate data rights and interests.

1. Information We Collect Automatically

To ensure stable operation, optimize running performance and improve your overall user experience during the use of Rayrefect Maze, our application will automatically collect non-identifiable background data. We will never actively collect your sensitive personal information such as real name, contact number or residential address without your explicit authorization.

The types of information collected are as follows:

1. Device related data: Mobile device model, operating system version and unique device ID;
2. Network data: Public IP address generated when your device connects to the network;
3. Preference settings: System language you have selected and corresponding regional usage preferences;
4. Session records: App startup times, continuous usage duration and complete session activity logs;
5. In-app activity data: Frequency of each function used, user interaction records, as well as your usage progress and task completion data within the application.

All collected data will undergo anonymization and aggregation processing. Such processed data cannot be used to identify a single individual user independently.

2. Purposes for Data Utilization

All collected information will only be applied to legitimate operation and optimization work related to Rayrefect Maze, and will not be diverted to any unrelated scenarios.

The main usage purposes are listed below:

- Maintain the normal operation of the application on various mobile devices, reduce failures such as crashes, freezes and loading errors;
- Analyze user usage habits and operational characteristics to optimize functional design and interactive experience;
- Conduct daily technical maintenance, fault troubleshooting and subsequent version iteration and upgrade;
- Cooperate with qualified third-party service providers to deliver suitable advertisements, track advertising effects and expand high-quality user groups;
- Fulfill the legal compliance obligations of overseas regions and complete the review requirements of the application platform.

3. Third-Party Service Partners

To create a more smooth and complete service environment, we cooperate with a number of well-known third-party service providers around the world. These partners include advertising networks, data analysis institutions, mobile attribution platforms and cloud service providers. They will process limited non-sensitive data on our behalf, so as to help us evaluate advertising delivery results, improve user acquisition efficiency and push advertisement content that matches your interests. Each third-party partner has its own independent privacy policy. You can click the links below to view their respective data processing rules:

We will conduct regular compliance inspections on all cooperative partners to ensure their data processing behaviors are within the authorized scope and in line with international privacy norms.

4. Rules for Information Sharing

We firmly abide by the principle of user data confidentiality and will never sell, rent or trade your data for commercial purposes. We only share limited data under the following legal circumstances:

- You have voluntarily given clear permission for specific information sharing;
- Provide necessary data support to cooperative third parties to ensure the normal operation of their services;
- Comply with national laws, judicial rulings and official regulatory inspection requirements;
- Prevent network fraud, illegal intrusion and other risks to protect the legitimate rights of the application and all users;
- Share fully desensitized statistical data for internal product research and market analysis.

5. Data Storage and Security Protection

All user data is stored on overseas cloud servers that have passed international security certification. We adopt the data minimal retention rule: we only retain data during the period required to achieve the corresponding service purposes. Once you uninstall Rayreflect Maze or the data loses practical value, we will perform permanent deletion or irreversible anonymization immediately.

We adopt multiple protection measures such as transmission encryption, storage encryption and hierarchical access permission management to guard against unauthorized access, data leakage and tampering. Meanwhile, we will continuously upgrade security systems to respond to potential network risks. Please note that no electronic storage or transmission technology can guarantee absolute security.

6. User Rights & Minor Protection

In accordance with local applicable privacy laws, you have the right to inquire about the data we collect, restrict data collection behaviors, and apply for data deletion.

Rayreflect Maze is oriented to users aged 13 and above. We do not actively collect any information of minors under 13 years old. If we accidentally obtain minor information without the consent of guardians, we will delete such data completely and promptly once discovered.

7. Updates to This Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to revise the content of this Privacy Policy in a timely manner according to the adjustment of international laws and the functional iteration of the application. After the policy is updated, we will update the effective date synchronously. Your continued use of Rayrefect Maze after the update takes effect will be regarded as your acceptance of the new policy terms.
