

Unit 8.13 Culture: Minimizing Interruptions

Practice the vocab below. If you forgot how to sign the vocab, you can watch the video on the page, or use the ASL Resource Links on Mrs. B's Webpage.

Vocab to use:

- ☐ SORRY LATE
- ☐ EXCUSE-ME

Notes:

Here are acceptable cultural practices in an ASL or Deaf culture class that you must use in order to minimize interruptions in the classroom.

Inform the teacher why you are late by:

- Waiting for appropriate break
- Get the teacher's attention
- Briefly apologize and explain tardiness
- Get teacher's permission before taking a seat

If you have to leave the classroom:

- Get the teacher's attention
- Briefly excuse self and explain why
- Get teacher's permission before leaving the classroom
