

LEARNING ACTIVITY SHEETS

Introduction to Philosophy of the Human Person Grade 12

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade/Section: _____

Score: _____

Lesson Title: Human Person as an Embodied Spirit

Learning Competencies

- Discern the origin and composition of man.
- Recognize man's own limitations and possibilities.
- Evaluate man's own limitations and the possibilities for his transcendence.

Learning Content

Human Person as an Embodied Spirit

- In discerning human person as an embodied spirit, recognize his origin and composition and his own limitations and possibilities.

Learning Check

Activity 1

Directions: Identify the proponents of the following philosophical views about human being.

1. Man is created in the image of God. _____
2. Man is a rational animal. _____
3. Man is a dichotomy of body and soul. _____
4. Man is a tripartite being. _____
5. Man's existence is reserved for him. _____
6. Man is a transcendent being. _____
7. Man is responsible for his own existence. _____
8. Man's primary element is air. _____
9. Man is originated from fish. _____
10. Man is a finite substance. _____

Learning Check

Activity 2

Directions: Give what is asked in each item.

1. Three Parts of the Soul According to Plato
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
2. Three Kinds of Soul According to Aristotle
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____

LEARNING ACTIVITY SHEETS

3. Four-fold Manner of Man as an Encompassing-Transcendent Being

- a. _____
- b. _____
- c. _____
- d. _____

Learning Check

Activity 3

Directions: Supply the appropriate word or phrase to complete the idea of each statement below.

1. The _____ limits man to know everything.
2. Man is a “great _____” because there is in a man which cannot be understood as a part of the world, as a thing among things.
3. Man can only gain _____ the moment he learns to doubt for everything.
4. All men are bad and ever ready to display their _____ whenever they may find occasion for it.
5. Man’s understanding is so limited that _____ of the universe is beyond man’s power to reach.
6. All men possess benevolence or act of kindness which is the basis of his _____.
7. The value of every act of man derives from its _____ and is for the greatest happiness of the greatest number of people.
8. Man’s _____ is the foundation of ethics.
9. Man’s struggle for existence is meaningless without the _____.
10. Man can be understood according to the world he lives in, for the world is an integral aspect of his _____.

Learning Check

Activity 4

Directions: Do a philosophical reflection on the following philosophical thoughts about limitations and possibilities of man.

1. “Man is a great mystery because there is in a man which cannot be understood as a part of the world and as a thing among things.” – St. Augustine

2. “Man’s understanding is so limited that comprehensive knowledge of the universe is beyond man’s power to reach.” – John Locke

LEARNING ACTIVITY SHEETS

3. “Man can be understood according to the world he lives in, for the world is an integral aspect of his existence.” – Edmund Husserl

Prepared by:

Checked and Reviewed:

Domingo S. Sagnip Jr., PhD
Master Teacher II

Kynah Amor M. Darwin
School Principal II