Blue = I own the DVD or Blu-ray (if there are no Infos on the size that's because I haven't ripped it on request yet, but the format will always be MKV for Blu-rays and VOBs + smalls for DVDs).

complete text in bold & red = I just traded for it and this is my very visible reminder to add the file size & format. If it's just a part, I'm just stressing that it is NFT/(V)LT/might has no smalls etc.

Seres Ildikó (Elisabeth), Szabó P. Szilveszter (a Halál), Dolhai Attila (e/c Luigi Lucheni), Arany Tamás (u/s Rudolf)

Single-Cam Proshot. Proving that sometimes emergency covers are great, and sometimes they're... well, interesting might be the most generous word here. Dolhai only played Rudolf up to this point, so the fact that he was called in as e/c for Lucheni shows just how desperate the staff were. (The original Lucheni, Dézsi Szabó Gábor, came down with vocal chord inflammation and the show was originally going to be cancelled, but Dolhai Attila offered to step in and learnt the role in one afternoon. He was assisted by the original Lucheni, prompters, and the conductor.)

A great capture of the American premiere at La Jolla Playhouse. The incredibly talented cast delivers the score beautifully. Michael and Ciara both give powerhouse performances. This is a perfect capture with no blackouts, no obstruction, and just slight washout in some wide shots. It's filmed in 16:9, with a mix of wides, mediums, and close-ups. The sound is excellent. Includes curtain call and playbill scans.

Shot from the front mezzanine, front of stage action is captured great from between the bar. The bar obstructs a bit when performers are on the upper levels of the stage but overall very watchable. Capture includes the entire show, including partial curtain call (missing We Raise Our Cups). With my other master, you can get a great visual of the entirety of the show's beautiful choreography and staging.

Closing performance. This is arguably the best of the four. 4K and 1080p, from right mezzanine. Very steady filming. Almost no obstructions - minimal heads in house right side on widest shots. About 1-minute dropout during Finale when house lights come up. Includes curtain call. Funny mishap when Denée's slipper flew into the audience, causing her to break while Sara went to retrieve it. NPH and Gavin Creel were a little extra goofy, too.
