

One Acts Festival Reflection Journal

Whether you are performing at the festival or not, it's expected that you attend as many performances as you can. Please complete this assignment over the course of the weekend, as well as at home show. This should be handed in on paper or via email.

This is due on May 18

1. What show did you see that demonstrated great risk? In what way? Did it pay off? How so?
2. What show did you see that you were really moved by? Why? What choices were made that caused such an impact?
3. What show did you see that you wish you could watch again? Why?
4. Reflect on a moment from the weekend where you learned something about professionalism in theatre.
5. Reflect on a moment from the weekend that you will remember a week/month/year from now. Why?

Part 2-Reflection

- After home show, you will need to hand in:
 - Your script
 - Your cue sheets
 - Any notes/character work/schedules that you created or used for festival
- Please reflect on the following questions:
 - How did your tech contributions add to the production? What's something you're proud of in that role?
 - Describe one thing in your tech role that allowed you to learn or experiment with?
 - What is something about your performing/directing role that you took a risk in? What did that risk add to the production/process?
 - Describe a moment from your directing/performing experience that allowed you to showcase your learning or skills from the past few years of drama class.
