Your privacy and data security are extremely important to us. When you use our services, you entrust us with your information, and we understand that this is a significant responsibility. If you have any questions, you can always email us at rashedjoni013@gmail.com.

This privacy policy explains our data protection policies and describes the types of information we may process when you use one or more of our mobile applications ("App", "Apps", "Our App", "Our Apps"). It also explains how we and some of the companies we work with handle this information.

I. Information We Collect

1. Data About Your Use of the Service

Click counts, landing pages, pages viewed, apps opened, permission statuses, functionality status, number of apps installed, package names, app brands, network status of the app, `firebase_device_id`, app model, SIM country/region, system language, cookies that advertisers can store or read, etc. This data is only shared with certified third-party analytics platforms: Firebase and our self-built data statistics system (ECS). This information is used solely to improve the product experience and is not shared with any third parties. We do not use this information for any purposes other than improving the product experience and advertising effectiveness.

2. Device Information

We collect your device and network connection information to provide you with a better experience while using our app. This information depends on the environment in which you interact with us, your choices (including privacy settings), and the products and features you use, and may include:

SDK/API version, platform, timestamp, app identifier, app version, unique device identifier, device manufacturer, OS version, language locale, timezone, and network status (e.g., Wi-Fi), app's release status on Google Play, ad loading strategy, ad platform, and ad serving IDs.

We store information collected via the Android ID associated with your device, which helps us track your ad behavior while using the app. We treat this information as personal data.

Third-party SDKs integrated into our apps may access your information, including:

- Google Ad ID

The information collected by these third-party SDKs is managed by their respective providers, and we do not control these third parties. These third parties include monetization partners like Google Admob, Facebook Audience Network, IronSource, AppLovin, Vungle, Unity, Fyber, Amazon, Pangle, and analytics partners like Firebase, Facebook Analytics, and our own data system. You can find links to their privacy policies in the "Third-Party Partner Privacy Policies" section

4. Android Advertising ID

We use your Android advertising ID to provide you with personalized advertising experiences. It is used solely for advertising and analytics purposes. It is not linked to personally identifiable information or any permanent device identifiers (e.g., SSAID, MAC address, IMEI).

5. Other Information

We may collect information that you voluntarily provide directly to us, such as your email address, feedback, and answers to surveys.

II. How We Use This Information

To improve your experience while using our services, we may ask you to provide certain personal information. The information we ask for will remain on your device, and we do not collect it in any other way

As mentioned above, we collect your information for analytical purposes, and this data is only used for app optimization.

As described above, your personal information may be shared with our third-party partners. We may disclose your personal information to our business partners, including advertisers, publishers, and data tracking companies. These partners may use your personal information to show you ads, measure your interactions with ads/websites, and better understand website and app traffic usage or user behavior to improve their services. These partners' use of the information we disclose to them will be governed by their respective privacy policies.

III. Legal Basis for Processing Your Personal Data

1.Right to Withdraw Consent

If we rely on your consent to process your personal information, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. Withdrawing consent will not affect the legality of the processing we conducted prior to your withdrawal or the legality of processing by any third party based on consent prior to your withdrawal.

2.Right to Access and Rectification

If you request a copy of the personal information we hold about you, we will promptly provide you with a copy free of charge, unless the law allows us to charge a fee. You object to processing, and we are verifying whether our legitimate grounds override your rights

We will only process your restricted personal data with your consent, to establish, exercise, or defend legal claims, to protect the rights of other individuals or entities, or for reasons of substantial public interest. If restrictions are lifted, we will notify you.

5. Right to Object to Processing

If we process your personal information based on consent, contract, or legitimate interests, you can object to our processing at any time under applicable law. We may continue processing your personal information if necessary for the defense of legal claims or any other exceptions permitted by law.

If we process your personal information based on a contract with you or your consent, or if the processing is automated, you have the right to request your personal data in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format. Where technically feasible, we will transfer your personal information directly to another controller unless doing so would adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others.

7. Notification of Third Parties

If we share your personal information with third parties, we will notify them of any corrections, deletions, or restrictions on your personal information unless this is impossible or requires disproportionate effort. Upon request, we will identify such third parties.
