Money in Politics - Fast Facts

- Money in Politics, from the US presidential race to local elections, adversely affects almost every issue the LWV stands for. www.LWV.org
- In 2022 legislators in Michigan, on average, only received 11% of money for their campaigns from the people that they were elected to represent. www.Mlive.com
- The 2022 elections were the most expensive midterms ever, and just a handful of big donor families gave more than all 3.7 million small donors. This excess influence imbalance drowns out everyday voters' voices. https://www.brennancenter.org/our-work/analysis-opinion/most-expensive-election-ever
- From 2016 to 2020 overall Election spending increased 122% to more than 14 BILLION dollars!!! www.OpenSecrets.org
- Lower costs make it relatively easy for secret/dark money to dominate state and local elections. Usually low-information elections, where it may not take much advertising to sway voters.
 www.NewAmericanJournal.net
- In 2020, secret/dark money nonprofits that do not disclose their donors reported spending to the Federal Election Commission of more than 968 million dollars on "issue ads" targeting candidates online and on the airwaves. www.lnsideRadio.com
- Redboxing, a practice that effectively evades the donation limits law. www.NYTimes.com
- Politicians can set up a backdoor/pass-through fund and direct their donors to make anonymous donations and then not have to tell the IRS where the money came from. www.NPR.org
- Increased money in politics feeds partisan divide and incivility, with a lasting impact on our democracy.
 www.LWV.org
- Minors, trusts, as well as corporations, can contribute to political campaigns. See how @ www.fec.gov
- Secret/Dark Money has even affected our Supreme Court. It was the plan. See ThePowellReport
- All parties are donating dark/secret money. This is not a partisan issue. www.OpenSecrets.org
- The cost of running for election has increased astronomically and is out of reach for most ordinary citizens. www.OpenSecrets.org
- The amount of time legislators have to spend fundraising interferes with their time spent doing their jobs for us the American people. www.lssueOne.org
- 77% of the public says "there should be limits on the amount of money individuals and organizations" can spend on political campaigns. It's a nonpartisan concern. www.PewResearch.org
- Legislation to change parts of Campaign Finance Law can be overturned in the next legislature. It is very difficult to overturn Constitutional Amendments. www.AmericanPromise.net
- In a ranking of U.S. states' anti-corruption protection, Michigan is 47th, largely because the state has almost no independent oversight of elected officials. MLive.com

2023 Campaign Finance Reform Lobby Day Partners

