Question 1 (Adventures - Reading): "Adrenaline junkies always look for something new. To me, motor-racing is more disappointing than bungee jumping because it is too noisy. I would rather go scuba-diving to see the underwater world. It is less challenging but more colorful." What does the writer think about motor-racing and why? Answer: The writer thinks motor-racing is disappointing because it is too noisy.

Question 2 (Adventures - Reading): "If you are an adventure lover, you should visit the Alps. You can go skiing in winter or paragliding in summer. Exploring the nature is great there. But remember, safety is first. You must always check your equipment before you start any extreme sport." What is the main advice in the text? Answer: The main advice is to put safety first and always check the equipment before starting an extreme sport.

Question 3 (Adventures - Writing): Compare "Bungee Jumping" and "Canoeing". Use at least three sentences and words like more boring, more adrenaline-filled, or safer. Answer: Bungee jumping is more adrenaline-filled than canoeing because it is a very fast jump from a high place. Canoeing is safer and more relaxing than bungee jumping. I prefer canoeing because bungee jumping is too scary for me.

Question 4 (Tourism - Reading): "Antalya is a popular destination for 'all-inclusive' holidays. It has many five-star hotels and beautiful sandy beaches. Tourists can visit the Duden Waterfalls or walk in the old town called Kaleiçi. The best time to visit is between May and September." Find specific information: 1. Type of holiday, 2. Two tourist attractions, 3. Best months to visit. Answer: 1. All-inclusive holiday, 2. Duden Waterfalls and Kaleiçi, 3. Between May and September.

Question 5 (Tourism - Writing): Write a short postcard to a friend from a holiday destination. Mention the accommodation (where you stay), the weather, and what you did yesterday. Answer: Dear Tom, Greetings from Bodrum! I am staying in a small boutique hotel by the sea. The weather is hot and sunny every day. Yesterday, I joined a boat trip and swam in the crystal clear water. It was great! Wish you were here. Love, Sarah.
