

BUDGETING FOR YOUR EXCHANGE

GLENDON STUDENT FINANCIAL SERVICES

Explain how you will finance your stay abroad.

Below is a budget, you should try and figure out how your costs in Ontario compare to costs abroad and if you are able to afford to go on an exchange. But you don't need to develop a similar version.

Step 1 – Confirm your costs

Let's go through the one-time fees and expenses you'll be paying first:

Cost	Amount
York Course Fees	$6,978.90
Books, Equipment, School Supplies	$0 - $1,500
YFS Health and Dental Plan	$257.52
Mandatory Health Insurance (Guard.me)	$400
VISA Application Fees	$150
Roundtrip Airfare	$1,200
Subtotal:	$10,486.42

SAMPLE

Based on 30 credits in 2019-2020 for Domestic students.

You will have other expenses to cover each month. Let's budget for those expenses:

Cost	Amount	# of Months	Total Cost
Rent	$800	8	$6,400
Utilities (cell phone, laundry, Netflix, etc.)	$100	8	$800
Personal Spending (toiletries, entertainment, etc.)	$100	8	$800
Transit	$150	8	$1,200
Food (groceries, eating out, snacks, etc.)	$500	8	$4,000
Subtotal:			$13,200

	$10,486.42	+		$13,200	=		$23,686.42
--	-------------	---	--	----------	---	--	-------------

Step 2 – Confirm your resources

Resource	Amount
Personal Savings	$5,000
Income During the School Year	$0
Family Contribution (RESP funds, etc.)	$1,000
Scholarships and Bursaries	$0
York International Mobility Award (YIMA)	$700
Government Financial Aid (OSAP)	$14,546
Government Assistance (CPP benefits, ODSP, etc.)	$0
Other Resources (student line of credit)	$3,000
Total:	$24,246

Step 3 – Check your results

	$24,246	-		$23,686.42	=	$559.58
--	----------	---	--	-------------	---	----------

Student Number	Student Name	E-mail Address
----------------	--------------	----------------

Step 1 – Confirm your costs

Coming up positive? Great, you've got enough resources to cover your school and personal expenses!

Do you have a negative number? This means that you won't have enough resources to cover your costs. You will need to revisit your budget.
