God is
Mercy
May 10, 2026

'But this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope:' – Lamentations 3:21

Scripture passages for this week: Lamentations 3, Ephesians 2:1-5, 2 Samuel 24:14, James 2:13

God is _____.

Jeremiah is known as the '_____ prophet'.

He is credited with the books of _____, _____, and some of the books of the _____.

Justice – when you ___ what you _____.

Grace – when you ___ what you __ ___ deserve.

Mercy – when you __ ___ get what you __ deserve.

Because of _____, we get to experience _____ mercy.

You can be _____ with someone and still ____ them.

When God is angry, it ____ ___ mean that He ____ ___ love you.

God is rich in _____.

Eleos (greek) = living in a continual state of unending mercy.

God has always been ____, but He has also always been _____.

The Bible _____ in mercy and ____ in mercy.

Mercy _____ to God.

Reflect on these questions this week:
- How do you answer, 'God is _____'?
- Where has God shown you mercy in your life?
- Who is someone you could show mercy to?

Write other ways the Holy Spirit spoke to you here: