

For year round program and staff employment purposes, the school year is July 1 to June 30. The regular school term will provide for the number of days of student instruction as required by law.

The calendar for the school year will be approved annually by the School Board. The calendar will set forth classroom instruction days and indicate opening and closing dates, holidays and recess periods, days of in-service training, and dates of parent conferences.

Legal References:

Wisconsin Statutes

Section 115.001	[definitions; including “school year,” “school term”]
Section 115.01	[classifications; including the definition of “school day”]
Section 120.12(15)	[board duty to establish the hours of a school day]
Section 121.02(1)(f)	[school district standards; required hours of direct student instruction]

Wisconsin Administrative Code

PI 8.01(2)(f)	[school district standards; required hours]
-------------------------------	---

Cross References:

Adoption Date: 6/19/06

Revised/Reviewed Date: 3/26/2018, 11/22/2021, 5/20/2024