There are several types of Precious metal companies to invest in. The choices can be divided into these broad categories:

- Precious metal IRA providers
- Trust and ETF companies
- Mining companies
- Royalty and streaming companies

Another way to categorize Precious metals companies is by their focus on either the production of physical metal or the storage of physical metal.

IRAs, Trusts, and ETFs provide exposure to physical metal in storage while miners and royalty companies provide exposure to the ongoing production of Precious metals.
