

Henry Bent Jr., 60, Dies; Vice President of Bank

Henry Blake Bent Jr., 60, of 191 Farmington Ave., Farmington, vice president of the Connecticut Bank and Trust Co., died Saturday at his home.

Born in Harrisburg, Pa., he attended Kent School and Williams College.

A Navy veteran of World War II, Mr. Bent joined the staff of the bank in 1946. In 1950, he became an assistant secretary in the investment division of the trust department, and in 1953, he became trust officer. He was elected vice president in 1959.

Mr. Bent had served as the president of the Union Settlement and as president of the Hartford Neighborhood Centers.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Jane Ellsworth Bent; two daughters, Miss Ann Bent and Miss Susan Bent, both of Farmington and a brother, John P. Bent of Lake Forest, Ill.

A memorial service will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m. at St. James Church, Farmington.

HENRY B. BENT JR.

Burial will be private.

Memorial donations may be made to the Hartford Hospital Research Fund.