

Evaluating the Content
As you look at the questions below, put an X in the yes or no column for each.
Does the title of the blog provide information about its content?	Yes
Is the purpose of the blog stated on the blog page?	Yes
Is there a link to lead you to further information about the blog creator?	No
Can you determine the credentials of the creator from the blog content?	Yes
If you conduct a search on the creator's name in a search engine or in Google Groups, can you find out what provides the creator with the authority to write about the blog topic?	Yes
Can you tell from the comments on the blog that others treat the creator as an expert in the topic that the Weblog covers?	Yes
Do many other blogs link to this one?	No
(Conduct a URL search in a blog search engine like Google)	Ok
When looking at the blogger's posts, can you recognize any bias?	Yes
If the blogger includes a list of links to other Web sites or blogs, does this help you determine the expertise or authority of the blog creator?	Yes
Is the content found in the blog written in a readable manner, with correct grammar/spelling?	Yes
Does the content in the blog contradict information found in another source?	No