

Good morning Orange High School!!!! This is Branden Wang and this is Audra Incledon with your Daily Lion Reminders for Tuesday, October 22nd.*

“The African American Culture Club will meet tomorrow morning October 23rd at 8:00 am in the Commons Teacher's Lounge for movie and breakfast day!!!!”

“Hola, hola! There will be a Spanish club meeting after school tomorrow in room 119. Hope to see you there.”

"There will be a Male Minority Leadership meeting in the media center tomorrow at 8:00 am. Please be Prompt!

“Orange Students! Courtesy of your Orange High School Library, Graphic Novelist Jarrett Krosoczka (pronounced Kro-sauce-ka) is coming to visit on Thursday October 24th! He will talk about his experience writing and illustrating his novels. Students will be called down to the auditorium after attendance has been taken at the start of 1st and 3rd period!”

“Attention all students: On Thursday October 24th - Support the Flying Circuits Fundraiser at Choolaah by placing an order online, in the app or in store, using the code “ROBOT” at checkout between 10.45am and 9pm. 30% of proceeds will be donated to the Flying Circuits”

“Unity and Diversity will have the annual Cultural Traditional Clothing Day this Thursday, October 24th. Please wear clothing that represents your culture or a culture that you admire. Best cultural clothing outfit will win a prize. Prizes will be given to the best male and female costume. We can't wait to see you represent your culture!!!!”

Upcoming OHS Sports Events:
Tuesday October 22nd - [no events today]

That is all for your quick reminders for today!
And remember it's a great day to be a LION!