

Department of Law, GU
Programme: LL.M. (2 Years)

Course Outcomes

Programme	Course, Course code	Name of the Course	Course Outcomes
Masters in Law(LL.M.)	Semester I		The student is able to
	1001	Basics of Constitutional Law of India	• Describe the provisions of State, Law and Citizenship • Discuss the Constitutional Provisions relating to Services under the Union and States • Explain the background and philosophy of the Constitution of India • Analyze the Directive Principles of State Policy • Examine the Constitutional provisions pertaining to Parliamentary Privileges
	1002	Federalism Under the Constitution of India	• Explain the concept of Federalism • Examine the Centre-State relationship • Illustrate the concept of Freedom of Trade and Commerce with the help of case laws analysis • Compare the different type of Emergency Provisions • Interpret the provisions of Co-operative Federalism
	1003	Modern Theories of Law and State	• Describe the Theories of Natural Law • Examine the relevance of philosophies of Bentham, Austin, Hart and Kelson in the context of Indian Legal System • Illustrate the various aspects of law, such as liberty, values, value-judgement • Outline the recent development of the legal theory • Interpret the concept of liberty under the constitution of India
	1004	Theory of Legislation & Method of Interpretation of Statutes	• Explain the drafting mechanism pertaining to Legislation and the assessment of utilitarianism • Examine the principles of Civil Code and Penal Code • Analyze the importance of Judicial Legislation and codification • Compare and contrast the views on Public Opinion in India and U.K • Interpret the mandates of the Law Commission of India on Legislative process

	1005	Family Law	● Explain the sources and schools of Hindu Law ● Discuss the concept of marriage, matrimonial causes and theories of divorce ● Examine the concept of gift, wills and religious endowments ● Analyse the inter-relationship of the Constitution of India and Hindu Law ● Appraise the concept of Partition, Uniform Civil Code, Family Court Act 1984 and the Domestic Violence Act, 2005
	Semester II		The student is able to
	2001	Civil Liberties and Judicial Process	● Explain the concept of Independence of Judiciary and Judicial Review ● Analyze the fundamental rights relating to equality, freedom and liberty under the Constitution of India ● Examine the fundamental rights relating to Right against Exploitation, Right to Religion, Educational and Cultural Rights under the Constitution of India ● Analyze the history and process of Amendment of the Constitution of India ● Determine the applicability of Writs.
	2002	Law and Justice	● Analyze the concept of Eight Legal Materials and its practical implications ● Examine the various aspects of justice ● Illustrate the concept of Justice, Law and order, Distributive Justice and John Rawls' Philosophy on Justice ● Explain the Realist Thought Process and Critical Legal Studies Movement ● evaluate the Marxian Philosophy, Historical School of Thought, Sociological Approaches in the context of Indian Legal System

	2003	Law of Torts & Consumer Protection	• Describe the evolution, nature and scope of Law of Tort and its distinction from contract and criminal law • Discuss the concept of vicarious liability and general defences • Explain the concept of Nuisance, Absolute and Strict Liability and Negligence • Analyse the Law of Tort against person, body, reputation, property, freedom and domestic and other rights • Examine the provisions relating to Consumer protection Act 2019 (prior Act 1986)
	2004	Intellectual Property Rights	• Describe the concept of property and intellectual property along with international conventions • Discuss the law and concept of Copyright • Explain the evolution and concept of Trademark • Analyse the rights and protection of patentees under Patent law • Examine the significance of GI and Traditional Knowledge
	2005	Legal Research Methodology	• Describe the steps in legal research • Identify the research problem and formulate research questions, hypothesis • Explain the importance of social survey methods to carry out Empirical research • Analyze the theoretical research based on legal reasoning, case study method of research and appraise the applicability of ethics in legal research • Organize the methods of data collection, analysis and its interpretation

Programme	Course, Course code	Name of the Course	Course Outcomes
------------------	----------------------------	---------------------------	------------------------

Masters in Law(LL.M.)	Semester III	Specialisation in Constitutional Law and Administrative Law	The student is able to
	3011	Principles of Constitutional Law-I	• Explain the scope, types and Forms of Constitutions • Elaborate the concept of philosophy and the role of the Preamble in a written Constitution • Explain the Doctrines and Interpretation of Constitutional Law
	3012	Principles of Constitutional Law-II	• Enumerate the principles of Forms of Governments, Civil Liberties • Illustrate the significance of Independence of Judiciary with the help of case laws analysis • Elaborate the provisions of Amendment, Parliamentary Privileges and Emergency with the help of case laws
	3013	Comparative Constitutional Law I	• Comparative analysis of different features, federal structures, Separation of Powers, Trade and Commerce activities predominant in various liberal Constitutions with that of India
	3014	Comparative Constitutional Law II	• Comparative analysis of the Judicial Review, Powers and Functions of the President of USA with that of India • Compare and contrast the Composition and Jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of USA and India
	Semester IV	Specialisation in Constitutional Law and Administrative Law	The student is able to

	4011	Principles of Administrative Law-I	- Analyse the scope and importance of Administrative Law - Critically evaluate the Doctrines of Rule of Law, Separation of Powers, Delegated Legislation, Natural Justice in the growth of Administrative Law
	4012	Principles of Administrative Law-II	- Explain the process of Administrative Adjudication, Administrative Discretionary Powers, Estoppel and Waiver with the help of case laws - Critically analyse the APA and the Tribunals and Enquiries Act and its relevance
	4013	Indian Administrative Law I	- Trace out the growth and development of the Administrative Law in India - Apply the Doctrines of Rule of Law, Separation of Powers, Delegated Legislation, Natural Justice in the Indian Administrative Law
	4014	Indian Administrative Law II	- Explain the Doctrine of Ultra vires focussing on its components - Critically evaluate the Commissions of Inquiries Act and the Right to Information Act with relevant case laws - Analyse the State's Liability, Ombudsman and Lokpal
		Writing of Dissertation	Organise, elaborate and compare on a theme pertaining to the specialisation area strictly adhering to the legal research methodology
		Viva voce examination	Justify the writings of the Dissertation with the help of research questions, case laws analysis and comparative views on the topic

Programme	Course, Course code	Name of the Course	Course Outcomes
Masters in Law(LL.M.)	Semester III	Specialisation in Human Rights Law	The student is able to
	3051	International Bill of Human Rights, Right to Development and Right to Environment	● Trace out the historical development of Human Rights in global, regional and national perspectives ● Explain the rights conferred under the International Bill of Human Rights ● Enumerate the third Generation of Rights- Right to Development and Right to Environment
	3052	Conventions	● Analyse the commitment laid down in the Conventions on Racial Discrimination, Genocide, Torture, Child Rights, Migrant Workers ● Critically evaluate the provisions of CEDAW and India's commitment towards upholding those rights ● Explain the Convention on Disability and the National endeavour to fulfil those guidelines
	3053	Regional Bodies and Collective Rights	● Analyse the Human Rights components and its implementations provided under the regional bodies of major Continents
	3054	Courts and Tribunals	● Analyse the Judicial Trends and mechanisms under the UN regime ● Critically evaluate the working of the Adhoc Tribunals and Mixed Tribunals
	Semester IV	Specialisation in Human Rights Law	The student is able to

	4051	International and National Institutions on Human Rights	● Explain the composition , powers, functions and jurisdictions of the major organs of the UN ● Illustrate the working of the National Human Rights Institutions ● Explain the modus operandi of the National Human Rights Commission, State Human Rights Commission , National Commission for Women , Child ● Analyse the Reports of current major theme of Human Rights and Country specific
	4052	Humanitarian Law-I	● Trace out the gradual development of the International Humanitarian laws ● Analyse the making and adoption of the Four Geneva Conventions, August, 1949 ● Illustrate the functioning of the ICRC
	4053	Humanitarian Law-II	● Explain the Post Geneva Conventions including the Additional Protocols ● Provide a detailed analysis of the Ottawa Treaty and impact of landmines on humanity ● Critically evaluate the impact of Small Arms and Light Weapons- National and International Perspective ● Enumerate the role of International NGOs promoting Humanitarian laws

	4054	Refugee Laws	● Explain the legislative mechanism pertaining to Refugees and its Protocols with emphasis on the functioning of the UNHCR ● Provide the detailed analysis of the Internally Displaced persons and Stateless persons, Illegal Migrants at the Global perspective
		Writing of Dissertation	Organise, elaborate and compare on a theme pertaining to the specialisation area strictly adhering to the legal research methodology
		Viva voce examination	Justify the writings of the Dissertation with the help of research questions, case laws analysis and comparative views on the topic
Programme	Course, Course code	Name of the Course	Course Outcomes
Masters in Law(LL.M.)	Semester III	Specialisation in Criminal Law	The student is able to
	3021	Law of Crimes -I	● Discuss the concept and development of criminal law in India and distinguish between crime and other wrongs ● Demonstrate an understanding of applicability of mens rea and the various principles of liability under Indian Penal Laws ● Explain the provisions relating to preliminary crimes under the Indian penal code ● Analyse the various general exceptions to liability under the Indian Penal Code ● Interpret the concept and applicability of Vicarious liability and Joint Liability in criminal law

	3022	Law of Crimes -II	- Analyse the various offences against human body based on judicial pronouncements - Distinguish the various offences against property based on their constituent elements and determine their applicability in different case scenarios. - Examine the offences relating to public servants under the Indian penal code and the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 - Illustrate the nature, types, and the legal frameworks of cyber crime encompassing cyber terrorism, cyber forensics, and cybercrime against women and children - Appraise the significance of the relevant law commission reports on criminal law
	3023	Socio-Economic Crimes-I	- Explain the scope, evolution, causes and significance of socio-economic crimes and white-collar crimes in India - Distinguish between the nature of socio-economic crimes, white collar crimes, traditional crimes and organised crimes - Examine the relevant provisions of the Information Technology Act, 2000 in the context of socio-economic crimes - Analyze the applicability of vicarious liability, strict liability and mens rea with reference to socio economic crimes - Illustrate the role of Indian judiciary in relation to preventive and remedial measures to combat socio-economic crimes

	3024	Socio-Economic Crimes-II	● Discuss the legislative measures to control socio economic crimes in India ● Analyse the relevant provisions of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988, the Prevention of Food Adulteration Act, 1954, the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Act, 1985 and the Essential Commodities Act, 1955. ● Explain the impact of economic crimes on national security with reference to the National Security Act and Arms Act ● Examine the relevant legislation relating to crime against women ● Appraise the significance of the relevant Law Commission Reports and Santhanam Committee Report on socio-economic crimes in India
	Semester IV	Specialisation in Criminal Law	The student is able to
	4021	Criminal Jurisprudence-I	● Discuss the development of criminal jurisprudence in primitive society ● Explain the public conceptions and misconceptions of crime ● Analyze the elements of crime and theories of criminal liability ● Examine the inchoate crimes such as abetment, attempt and conspiracy under the Indian Penal Code (IPC) ● Interpret the provisions relating to group and joint liability

	4022	Criminal Jurisprudence-II	● Apply the understanding of mental elements and criminality under Criminal Jurisprudence ● Analyze the scope and rationale of General Defences and its applicability to offences under IPC, Special or Local laws ● Illustrate the provisions relating to punishments and its categories under the IPC ● Examine the recent trends and contemporary issues in relation to criminal law ● Appraise the role of judiciary in crime control process
	4023	Criminology	● Discuss the historical perspective, objectives and dynamism of criminology ● Explain the ideologies of various Schools of Criminology ● Examine the theories of crime causation ● Analyze the modern trends in criminology and the theories of Feminism and Gender sensitization ● Evaluate the legislative provisions relating to juvenile delinquency

	4024	Penology	● Explain the theories, objective and effectiveness of punishment in ancient and modern India ● Illustrate the interrelation of policing and human rights with an emphasis on police reforms ● Analyse the Criminal Justice System and its reform in the present-day context ● Examine the prison administration and correctional institutions in the context of human rights and the Constitution of India ● Interpret the scope of Victimology and the role of victim in criminal justice system
		Writing of Dissertation	Organise, elaborate and compare on a theme pertaining to the specialisation area strictly adhering to the legal research methodology
		Viva voce examination	Justify the writings of the Dissertation with the help of research questions, case laws analysis and comparative views on the topic

Program Specific outcomes

After the successful completion of the two-year LL.M. program, the outcomes will be

- ✓ Demonstrate an understanding of the various aspects of Constitutional mandates in India including the Family laws for the Hindus and the legislative mechanisms
- ✓ Apply critical thinking, analytical skills and enhanced legal reasoning in relation to socio-legal problems
- ✓ Exhibit a deep understanding of the specialized areas of law, such as Human Rights, Criminal Law, Constitutional and Administrative Law from the National and International perspective
- ✓ Produce high level research output that can significantly contribute to new knowledge and exhibit the ability to independently development in the fields of judiciary, civil services, NGOS, Corporate sector and entrepreneurship as well as academic arena.

