Special Conditions (if any)

Please note that this is a sample format and may vary depending on the specific requirements of your housing society and local laws.

Also, make sure to include the following:

- The certificate should be printed on the society's letterhead.
- The certificate should be signed by an authorised official of the society.
- The certificate should have a unique certificate number and date of issue.
- The certificate should include a seal of the housing society.

It's always a good idea to consult with a lawyer or an expert in housing society management to ensure that the share certificate is legally valid and compliant with all applicable laws and regulations.
