

A colorful children's birthday party in a cozy living room. Five young children wearing striped party hats are gathered around a low table with a large birthday cake topped with lit candles. One child is blowing out the candles while the others look on excitedly. There are also slices of chocolate cake and a cup of pink sticks on the table. The room is decorated with balloons, streamers, and a multicolored pennant banner that reads "HAPPY BIRTHDAY". A plush piñata shaped like a llama stands to the right. The atmosphere is joyful and festive.
