

He doesn't have a name but is referred to as Guardian

Gender: Male

Pronouns: He/him

Classified: Western Guardian spirit

Species: Spirit dragon

Height: 15ft(4.6m)

Length: 30ft(9.1m)

Weight: None

Wingspan: 20ft(6m)

Personality: Wise, loyal, quiet, and reserved

Exclusive power: Spirit fire

Abilities: Healing, repairing, and foresight

Guardian, being a spirit, won't have his energy drained. But he does have a unique drawback called "Mind concentration."

A breakdown of each of his abilities

Spirit fire

This is a solid pale yellow fire with tremendous range and accuracy and an exclusive power only to the Western Guardian spirits. This power is useless on a physical object but devastating only to evil spirits and ghosts as it can one-shot them.

Mind concentration: Moderate

Healing

A soft yellow glow will cover the wound(s) and patch it up. However, this healing power can only heal minor injuries.

Mind concentration: Small

Repairing

A more powerful healing that mainly allows him to repair the loss of limbs; the partner will have a light yellow outline of their lost limb and a scar of where the original limb was lost. It will function like a normal limb. However, this ability can only repair limbs, not organs. This power can also heal severe injuries like broken bones, which will have the exact mechanism of the soft yellow glow.

Mind concentration: Moderate

Foresight

This powerful ability requires a lot of concentration and can only be used in a quiet environment. He must clear his consciousness of all distractions and focus solely on the future. This ability allows him to see potential outcomes and events that may occur, but it doesn't guarantee that they will happen, as it's still possible for things to change. Depending on how long he's in this state, he will be gone for 2 - 10 minutes.

In rare cases, Guardian will show the future(s) in Hazel's dream. This will only happen if it's urgent, as he doesn't like doing this to his partner.

Mind concentration: huge

Weaknesses

He needs to rely on the bracelet that Hazel is wearing. It's his power source and what causes him to be connected to her.

Suppose the gems on the bracelet are damaged. In that case, he will be partially disconnected, and Hazel's abilities will weaken, along with her transparent wing being slightly faded, making it somewhat difficult to fly.

If the bracelet's base is entirely broken, the connection is lost, and Hazel will lose her abilities and the transparent wing until it's fixed. However, Guardian will die if the base and the gems are shattered.

There are 2 other ways for Guardian to get disconnected: Hazel chooses to take off her bracelet, or her bracelet arm gets ripped off.

If Guardian is partially disconnected, the base will lose some of its golden color; being fully detached will cause the base to look like a 14k gold color.

Extra info

- Guardian rarely comes out of the bracelet.
- If Guardian is outside and away from Hazel, he will always know where she is as long as she's wearing the bracelet.
- Western Spirit dragons can hover without needing to flap their wings
- Spirit dragons don't bleed but can still be damaged by other attacking spirits.
