

Notes on Revision With Vision: Revising Our Governing Documents

Beverly Hall-Maughan

- * Our governing documents must align to our organization's evolving needs and priorities.
- * There is a Revision Task Force following the resolution adopted at the 2024 International Convention.
- * Build understanding among members of basic definitions and distinctions: Constitution, Rules, Bylaws, Guidelines, Policies and Procedures GAPP.
- * Rationale and recommendation of creating a new single governing document called International Bylaws.
- * The difference between revision and amendment; why choose revision over amendment?
- * An attorney is involved at the International level as the International Bylaws is a legal document.
- * The International Constitution Committee is not calling for proposed amendments for the 2026 International Convention because of stipulations of ARTICLE X in the International Constitution.
- * Procedure for approving revision of our governing documents.
