7th Grade

GENERAL ITEMS

- notebook/binder of some variety (3-holed, Five-star, etc. whatever is comfortable for you) for each subject. Some students choose to have a large binder with subfolders for each subject.
- lined paper (preferably not spiral bound)
- pencils and pens.
- one package of 3x5 note cards
- set of colored pencils
- if you use something other than your planner for organizing your assignments, bring that in (stick with what you are comfortable with from 6th grade).
- Audio headphones (earbuds or other)

SUPPLIES FOR SPECIFIC CLASSES

Language Arts

- Be sure to have a system for keeping notes and documents; this could be a binder with pockets and looseleaf paper, or a notebook and folder, or some combination that works best for you.

Social Studies

- nothing else beyond the general supplies

Science

- Composition notebook

Math - Pre-Algebra and Algebra

- Several pencils

- small 3 ring binder with lined paper (1/2" ring size should be plenty, I would encourage you to get the "view" style so that you can insert a cover page with your name and subject title)
- calculator – I would highly recommend the Ti-84 as it will be required in future math courses as well, but it is not required.

Art

- an inexpensive 8 x 10 sketchbook

French

- Two inch 3 ring binder (with 3 dividers if possible, but not necessary)
- Use the same binder as last year, if possible.
- One box of colored pencils (12 or 24 count works fine)
- Colored Highlighters (4-5 different colors)

Chinese:

- 3-ring binder with 3 dividers
- Pencils and 1 highlighter remain in the Chinese binder.
- College ruled paper should be in the binder

Spanish

- one inch 3-ring binder, with 3 dividers.
- college ruled notebook
- folder
