Biography:

Joseph Washington Jr is a Strategy Consultant with 7 years of experience in Change Management across various industries. Throughout his career, he has demonstrated a strong track record of organizational restructurings, technology implementations, and DEI facilitation.

Joseph holds a Bachelor of Science in Marketing from the University of New Orleans, and a Masters of Business Administration from California Southern University. He is also a United States Air Force Veteran, a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated, and involved with the Houston Area Urban League Young Professionals.

In his current role as an Organizational Change Manager at Phillips66, Joseph is responsible for managing project deliverables focusing on improving early detection of corrosion threats across the companies' refineries globally.

He excels at communications strategies, project management, and strategic stakeholder engagements.

Prior to his current position, Joseph held positions at Moderna, NRG Energy, and Accenture, where he gained valuable experience in digital implementations, M&A's, process innovation, and communication deliverables.

In his free time, Joseph enjoys cooking, cycling and participating in student mentorship between Houston and New Orleans.

What are you looking to achieve through the NUL Emerging Leaders Program?

To focus on community leadership, understanding what success looks like at the nonprofit level vs for profit. Also looking to be pushed out of my comfort zone as I learn new ways of forward thinking and leadership.

Fun Fact: I set my high school's record for the Men's 400m relay in 2004 and it's still standing to date.
