

First off I'd like to correct my misgendering of ObscuredFlower, as I was not aware they went by they/them and at the time I knew them they went by she/her.

Anyways this will be a callout of ObscuredFlower who abused me since 2016 or 2017 (my memory is hazy due to how traumatic it is I apologize) to 2019. I will not get into the personal dms as I do not want to open up old wounds that are just barely healed.

I will refer to ObscuredFlower as Spades throughout this.

I knew Spades when I was around 12-13 on DeviantArt under the name WoshiWoosh, I met them through trading characters and we became fast friends. I looked up to them a lot, and they were someone I found deep comfort in as I was dealing with a lot of familial issues and was entirely unmedicated at the time which is very hard for me especially because I am prone to delusion. Spades was 4 years older than me and took advantage of that.

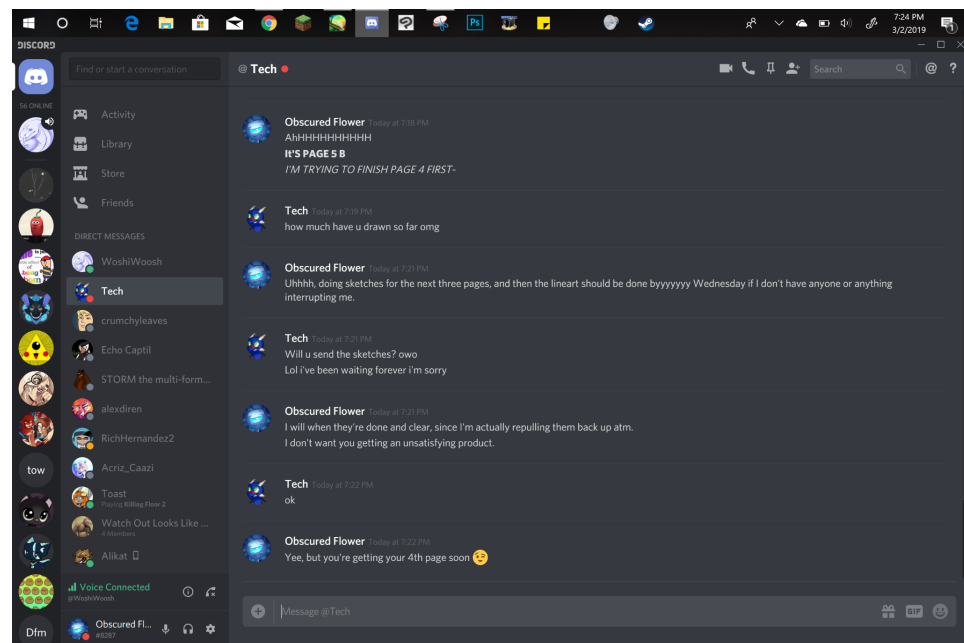

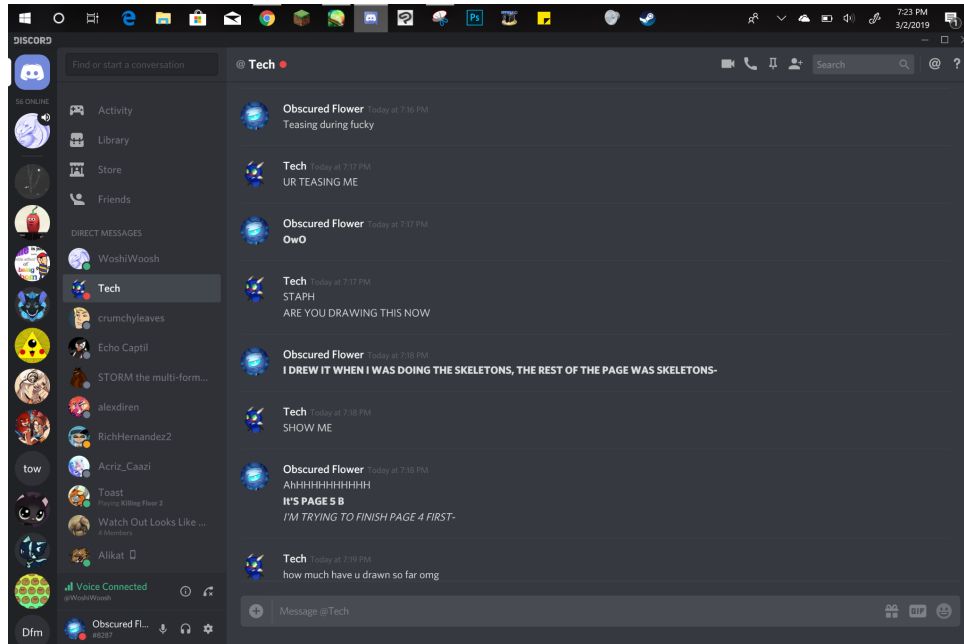

They would proceed to mentally abuse me, and caused me to start self harming. I was not ok at this time, and they were also playing with my delusions. Once I was around 14-15 Spades would proceed to draw me NSFW artwork which will be shown below with censored versions.

I am not the only minor Spades has drawn NSFW for, these were “gifts” but they also have accepted NSFW coms from minors, they also did NSFW for Spactor Theory himself doing full on NSFW comics

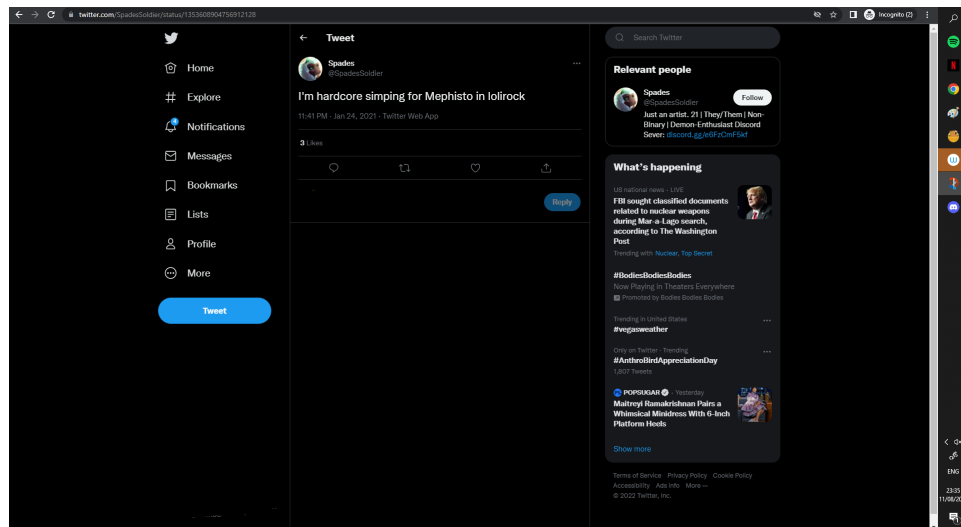

I'm quite sure he was a minor at this point but if not correct me.

Spades has also demonstrated drawing animal genitalia and ferals such as MLP NSFW

Which I'd consider zoophilic.

Spades also seems to have an interest in liking minors themselves

Mephisto - Lolirock Wiki - Fandom

Mephisto was the twin brother of Praxina, and one of the main evil villain in LoliRock. He was more bumbling and incompetent than his sister Praxina. In the Season 2 finale, he was hit by a powerful explosion whilst saving his sister and hasn't been seen since that.

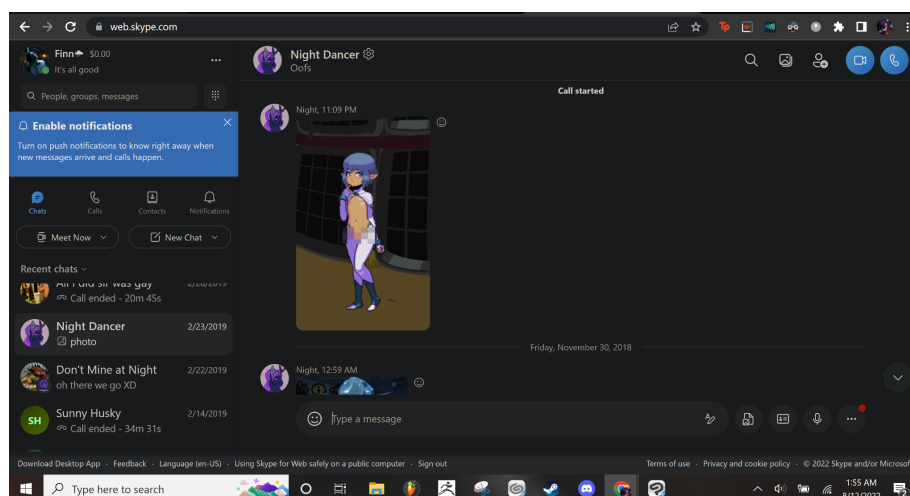

Age: 17 (Human age); 51 (Ephedian age)

First Episode: To Find a Princess

Love Interests: Auriana

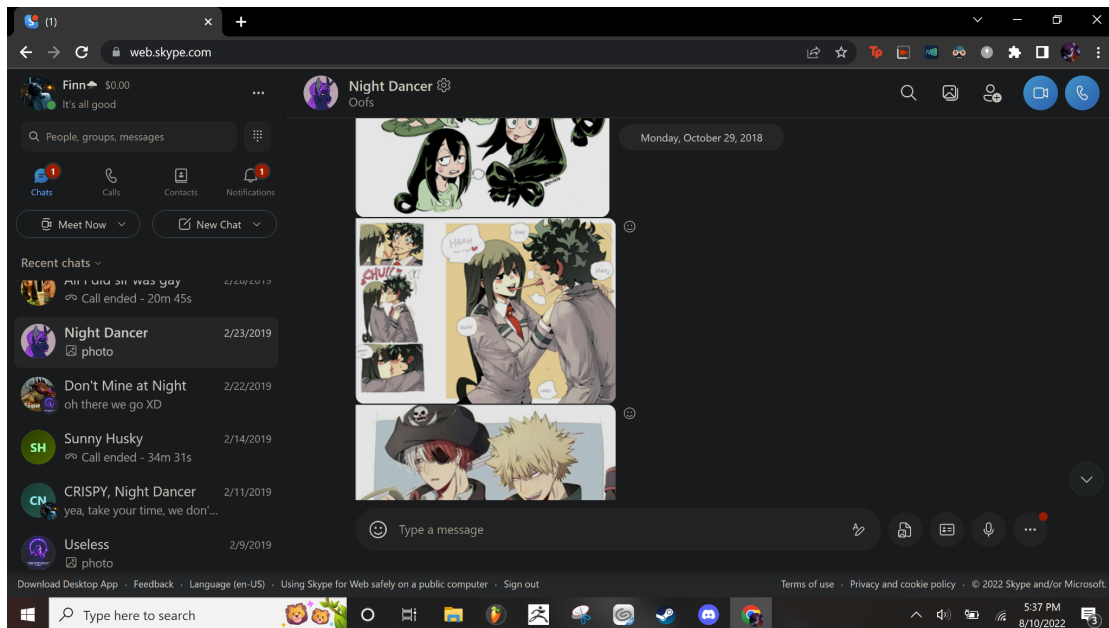

Latest Episode: Crowning Glory: Part 2

Im not surprised they do have an interest with minors as they would DM me about sexual things as if it was a joke. One notable example of this is a game they'd stream containing zoophilia and minors

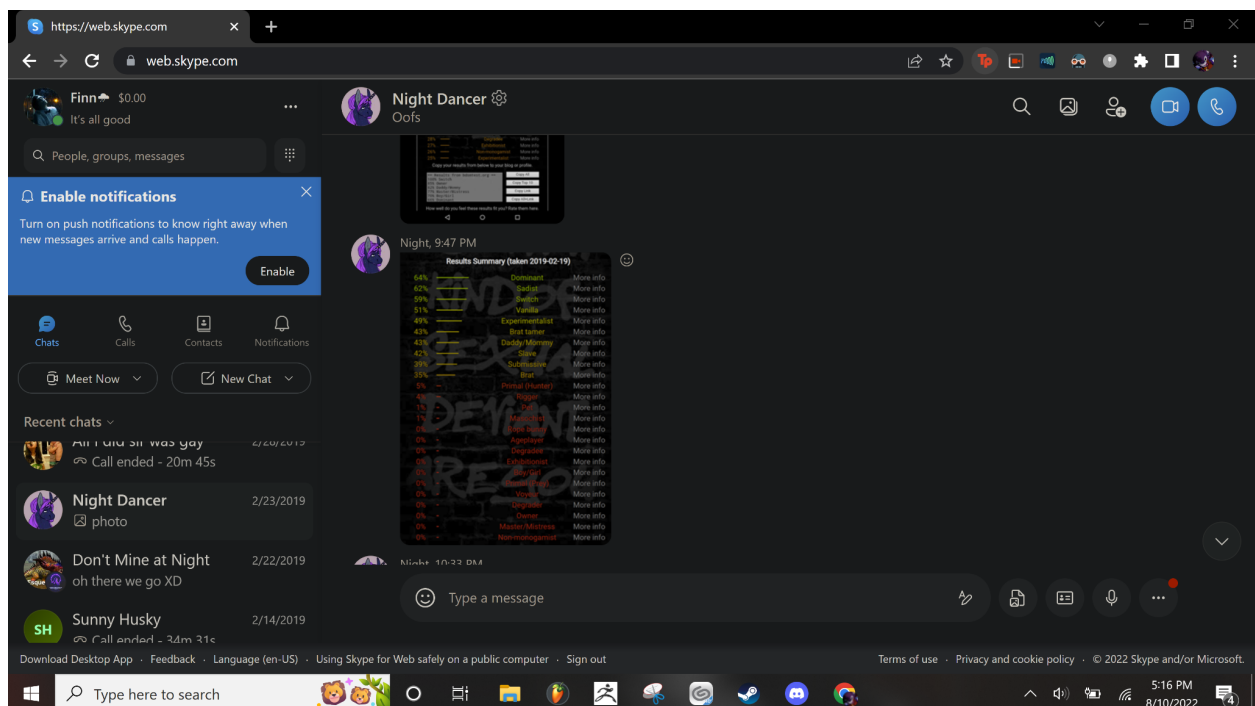

The name of the game is "Breeding Season"

They would also send stuff like this as if its funny

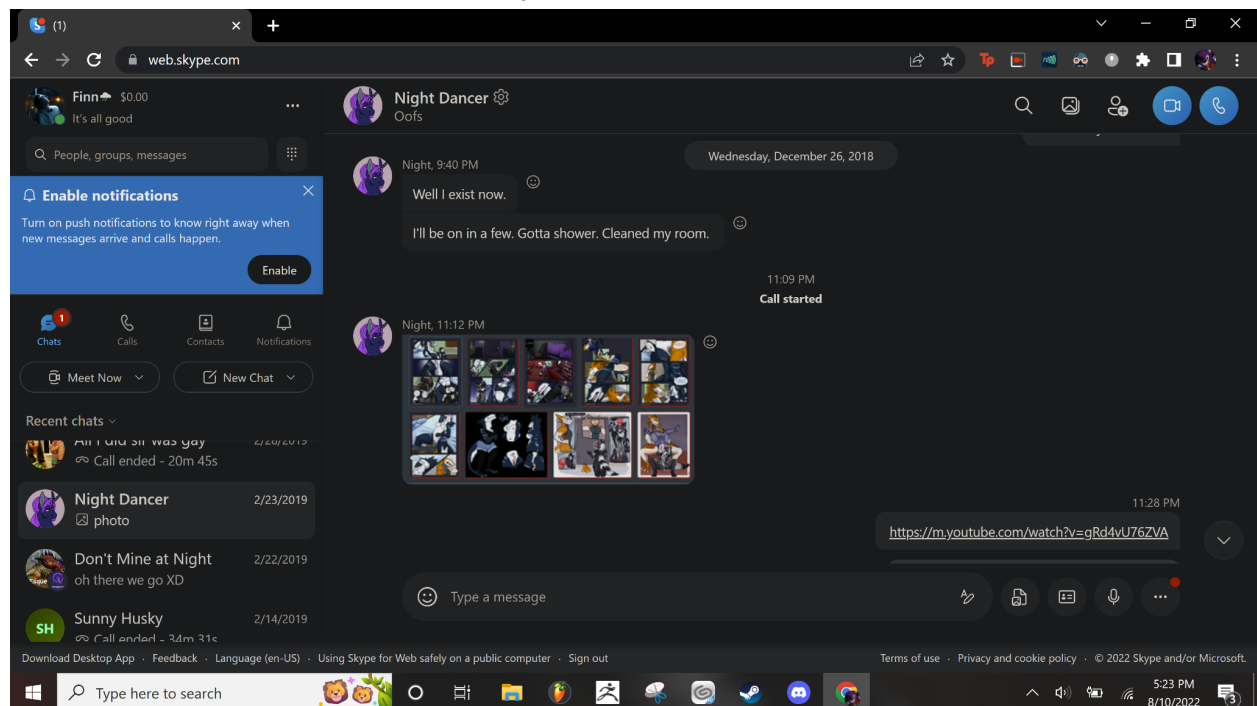

I also recall doing sexual character talk along with NSFW roleplay but I do not have screenshots of that, so you don't have to take my word for it if you don't want to.

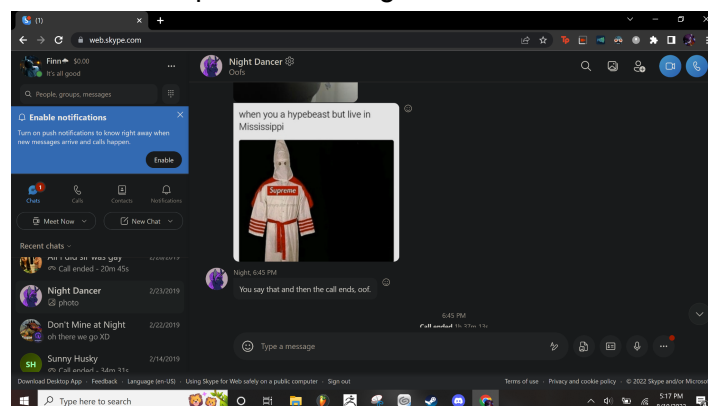

Here's also a screenshot of their BDSM results in the BDSM test, why they'd think this is appropriate to show me whilst they're 4 years older than me is baffling.

They would also show me constant updates of their NSFW commissions since it was common for them to update me on commissions in general, usually shitalking the commissioners behind their backs quite rudely, when most of them were quite polite.

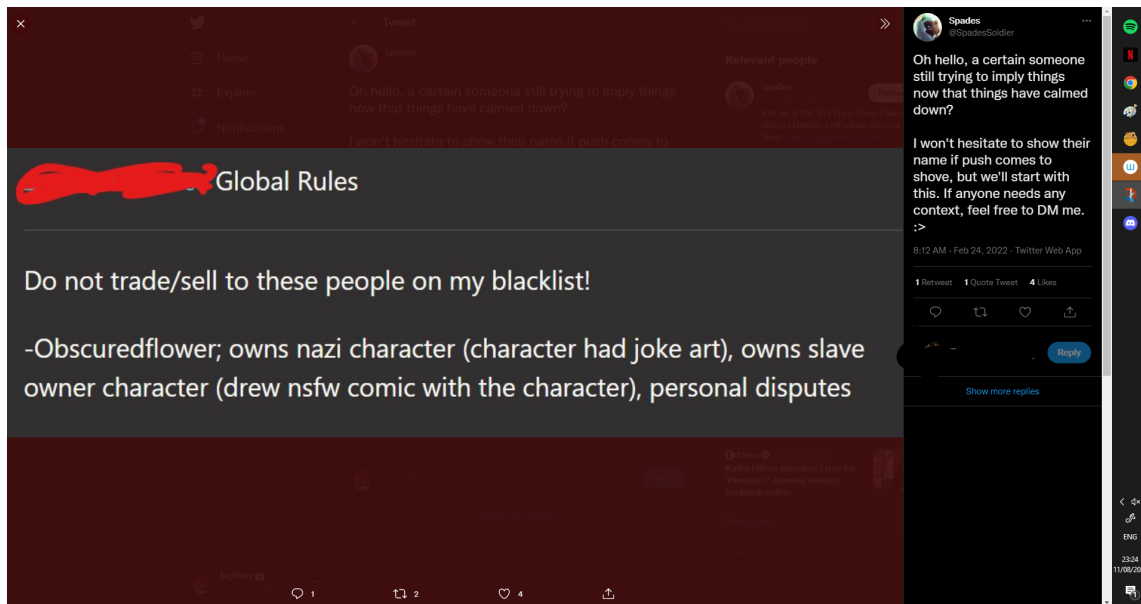

I do not feel like getting the screenshots of them shitalking as finding these images are already tiring on me so again you don't need to believe me.

Spades would also partake in saying racist jokes, I do not have screenshots of these jokes as most of them were via call, I do have a screenshot of a meme they found funny which contains a person wearing a KKK outfit

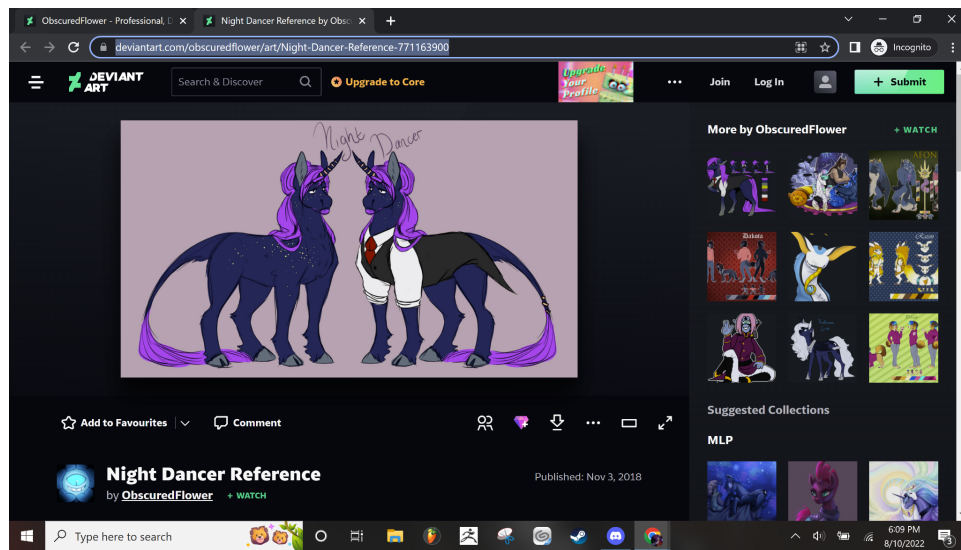

I do recall them having a object headed character with a nazi uniform on their toyhouse, unfortunately I did not archive the images but there is some mentioning of said character on their twitter

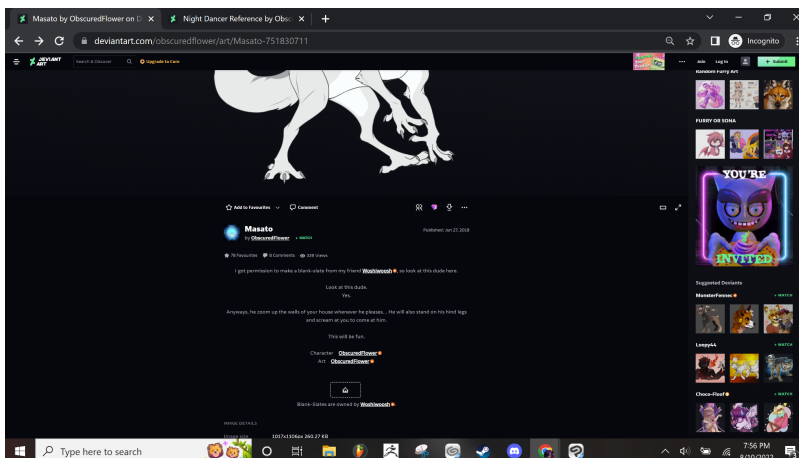

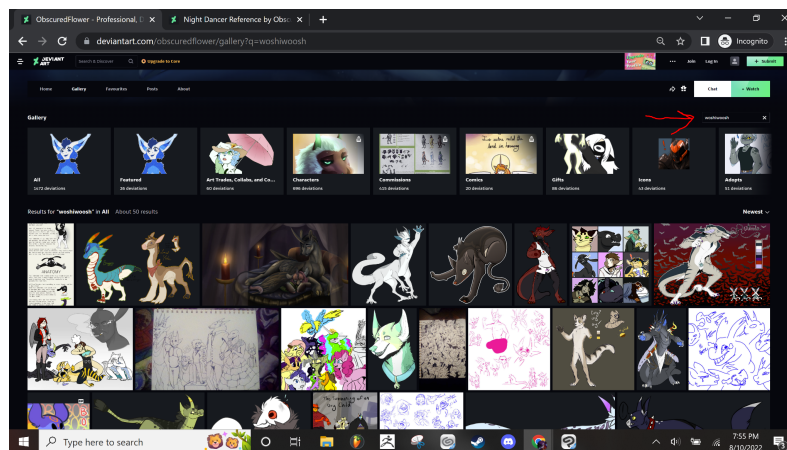

You dont have to believe me with this one as I know I don't have a record of the character but I have multiple witnesses who have seen this said character, and I recall when people questioned it they claimed it was just a joke before deleting it. Which Nazisim isnt a joke whatsoever.

Oh and to validate their Skype their icon features the character Night Dancer which Spades has posted on their socials many times

And here's some proof Spades has known me

Overall this person was a horrible influence on my life, causing me to self harm and playing with my delusions. They entirely took advantage of me cause I was a young autistic child who didn't know any better, I was not socialized at all due to my background and I was naive. They taught me to be a hateful person when I knew them and I grew to have a lot of problems such as having internalized racism, being antisemitic, and misogynistic. I have grown from what this awful person has taught me, but they clearly haven't bettered themselves.

I am done being quiet about this person, they hurt me, and have hurt other people too. Them and spocor keep hurting people and I'm tired of it.

The whole reason I came out about all this is due to Spocor Theory invalidating DID systems, and continuing to stigmatize it, and as someone with its own stigmatized mental illnesses (mental illnesses Spades took advantage of take in mind) I'm done letting these people getting away with bullshit.

To Spades

Do not contact me, I will never forgive you. You abused me, that's it. If you DM me I will not respond, not even read it.

To Spocor

We can talk about your degenerate artist, and have a discussion. I want you to know you should genuinely take your video about DID down, you have no place talking about a disorder you know nothing about. You are not a psychologist nor a system.

To anyone who wants to help me now just spread this around, maybe support my store as I'm trying to save up to move along with help jumpstart my art career, as working for me is very hard as I'm autistic and my sensory problems can be extremely bad, along with my mental state due to mental illnesses I do not feel comfortable stating.

Thankyou all for reading my story, it took me a lot to come out about this as I've been scared to talk about this since 2019 cause I thought nobody would believe me or take me seriously. But I mustered up all my courage to do this.

Since I know Spocor is a youtuber if anyone wishes to make a callout video about this person you may contact me, but I will not go into detail about the mental abuse, as it does trigger my PTSD and causes me to get into a PTSD episode.
