

Number / Measurement

WALT · Use linear scales and whole numbers of metrics for length, area,
· Find areas of rectangles and volumes of cuboids by applying multiplication.

Do these activities below on Monday & Tuesday

Place value

- Go to the Modeling 6-digit numbers learning object.
- Click on the dice at the bottom, then use the arrows at the top to make the number given. Click the question mark to check your answer.
- Make at least 10 numbers correctly.

Measurement activity

- Go to Three chairs and answer the questions for activity
- 1. Instead of using children in a class measure chairs and people in your bubble.
- Check the answers at the bottom of this page.

Do these activities below on Wednesday and Thursday

Place value

- Go to the Modeling decimal numbers learning object.
- Click on the dice at the bottom, then use the arrows at the top to make the number given. Click the question mark to check your answer.
- Make at least 10 numbers correctly.

Measurement activity

- Watch these videos first before doing the activities below.

Working out the area of shapes

Area and Perimeter of irregular shapes

- Go to the activity An Absorbing Challenge and follow the instructions.
- 1. Instead of using children in the class, use people in your bubble.

Post these activities on your blog.

Remember to include: A title, a blurb explaining what this activity was about, what you learned, what you did well, found challenging, & how could you improve, an image or photo of you doing the activity