

Historical CO2 Levels Image Description

A line chart shows that CO2 have historically been below 300 parts per million for 800,000 years before 1950. CO2 did go up and down over time, but beginning in 1950 it rose precipitously to over 420 parts per million.

The data source was reconstructed from ice cores and the chart is credited to NOAA.