

Dear [name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am [the name], a business growth consultant and a digital marketing expert. I recently came across an article about the best dog trainers in the city of Chicago and that's where I found your page.

I personally am a fellow dog lover and I am also a Strategic Partner and problem solver, and so I couldn't help but notice a few areas where I can contribute to the growth and success of your clinic.

For example you could work on your website's landing page. Put a better headline there to catch peoples attention. You also could create a newsletter campaign so you can enlarge your list of people's contact information.

Overall, I am confident that your website and your social media accounts have room for improvement, and If you're open to it, I'd love to schedule a call and explore how we can work together to grow your dog training clinic. You can find me on LinkedIn or just simply reply to this email.

Best regards,
Endrit Bejtullahu
