

Business Condolence Letter Sample #4

From,

Name _____

I got the news. Please accept my condolences on this said occasion. Your company has always been able to top. And, we all know that all your workers were working well under your excellent guidance. So, keep continuing the work to bring your company back. You have always given your best.

From all I have learned I can tell you the only thing that is life is full of tops and down. We all believe in yourself that as believe in yourself. Be strong and do not give up.

Hope this incident will never dishearten you and continue to work hard. I wish you all the best for the future. May all your dreams will come true. Feel free to contact me with anything you want.

Thanking You.

Yours Truly,
