Talking Points (Verbal Announcements)

Pastor—if you're looking for some "main talking points" for announcements about this preorder, please feel free to use the paragraphs below to get you started. Thank you for sharing this information with your church members!

The Wisconsin Evangelical Synod will celebrate 175 years of God's blessings and grace to our church body in 2025. As part of that celebration, WELS and our synod's publisher, NPH (Northwestern Publishing House), are releasing a limited edition pictorial history book filled with captivating images and fascinating stories that cover our synod's history from 1850 to the present.

This book, Christ Through Us, will only be available for preorder through October 15, 2024. If you're interested in receiving a copy or getting one for a friend or family member, please talk to me or sign up through the church office before that date.
