Instructions for Abstract Preparation for the JAAST Annual Meeting

(affiliation) ○Taro Fuji*, (UCLA) William C. Hinds

Introduction

Manuscripts should be prepared in either Japanese or English on A4-sized paper. The length must be one page including figures and tables. However, for "Journal Submission Manuscripts," the length should be between 2 and 4 pages (from the second page onward, start writing from the first line).

Since the presentation number and page number will be added later, please leave margins of 20 mm on all sides (top, bottom, left, and right).

Both Japanese and English manuscripts must follow this format on the first page. For English manuscripts, a Japanese title is not required.

Methods

The title should be written in a font larger than the main text and aligned at the center. Author names should be written aligned to the right in the order of "(affiliation) name."

For the presenting author, place a circle (○) before the name. Use asterisks (*) after each author's name to indicate affiliations; authors with different affiliations should be distinguished by different numbers of asterisks (e.g., *, **, ***).

At the bottom of the page, list the corresponding affiliations, matching each author to their affiliation by the same asterisk notation, including institution name and country. For one page, the standard format is 10-point font, 49 lines × 2 columns, but strict adherence to the number of characters per line, spacing, or number of lines is not required. Please prioritize readability.
