

Vice President of Grants & Programs at the Fairfield County's Community Foundation

Lutonya Russell-Humes started her career working in the foster care systems of New York City and San Antonio, Texas. Hoping to impact families and children before they entered the system. She began her community-based work with the anti-poverty agency Westchester Community Opportunity Program (WestCOP) at the Ossining Community Action Program.

She has successfully managed programs throughout Westchester County from Peekskill to Yonkers, and New York City. As a consultant, Lutonya assisted school districts, municipalities, a local college and non-profits with program design, professional development, and budget management. Before joining Fairfield County's Community Foundation, she was the Executive Director of the Boys and Girls Club of New Rochelle.

She is also a member of the advisory committee to the Elias Foundation's Activist Fellowship Program, and treasurer of Parents for Public Education. Lutonya is a proud member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

She is currently the Vice President of Grants & Programs at the Fairfield County Community Foundation.

Fairfield County's Community Foundation website HERE.

Fairfield County's Community Foundation Instagram @fccfoundation_ct.

Lutonya Russell-Humes LinkedIn HERE.

