

Aptos Winter School at IIT Bombay

Official Rules

Overview: Aptos Winter School is a two-week in-person learning, building, and presenting experience sponsored by the Aptos Foundation in partnership with Trust Lab at IIT Bombay. There will be programming around Move on Aptos, how to get started on Aptos, and presentations from key partners. You will have plenty of time to work on your projects, meet new people and seek advice and support from engineering mentors.

Dates. Winter School begins on December 10, 2023 and ends December 24, 2023.

Eligibility. Winter School is available only to those who applied and are formally accepted to attend.

How to Participate. Participants will form teams and participate in brainstorming and developing projects built with Move on the Aptos blockchain.

Award Funding. Aptos Foundation will choose 3-5 Winter School impactful projects and may invite the teams to continue developing their projects with possible grant funding from Aptos Foundation. Such grant funding (if any) will be subject to participants agreeing to a grant agreement and completing certain project milestones.

Winner Notification; Claiming Award Funding. After the presentations and final submissions, judges will review notes and make final decisions within approximately 2 weeks after the conclusion of Winter School. Winners will be notified by email and given instructions on how to move forward with their award funding.

Costs; Expenses. If selected to participate in Winter School, your travel costs will be covered by Aptos Foundation (subject to certain limitations) and you will be provided with IIT Bombay hosteling accommodations and IIT Bombay cafeteria meals at no cost to you. Aptos Foundation is not responsible for any costs if participants choose accommodations or meals other than those provided as part of the Winter School. For more details on what's covered, including travel limitations, see Frequently Asked Questions. Trust Lab is responsible for determining applicable travel costs and managing all reimbursement requests for travel.

Binding Terms and Conditions. By participating in Winter School, you agree to be bound by these specific terms and conditions for this event as well as the General Terms for Promotions and other applicable terms.
