GUIDELINES FOR CONTRACT RENEWAL

The contract renewal document should include the following information.

1. A statement on your teaching ability that includes:

   a. a self-assessment of your teaching ability with respect to courses you have taught, including a discussion of your effectiveness, students' responses to your approach and a self-analysis of the degree of attainment of student learning outcomes in the classes taught. It is understood that you are not solely responsible for the attainment of student learning outcomes by all students;
   b. a summary, analysis, and brief discussion of student evaluations since your last evaluation, or your initial appointment if this is your first evaluation; and
   c. a summary and brief discussion of your peer evaluations. There should be two (2) peer evaluations for each of the semesters being covered in the evaluation period.

2. A section outlining your accomplishments and activities since your last evaluation, or your initial appointment if this is your first evaluation. This section should include:

   a. a brief discussion of significant instructional materials or course revisions you have developed;
   b. a brief discussion of the professional development activities undertaken during this evaluation period that have most impacted or will potentially impact your thinking or your teaching. A list of other professional development activities may be included;

   e. a progress report or evaluation of goals/objectives you set in your previous evaluation; if this is your first self-assessment, you need not include this section.

3. A statement of your goals/objectives for the coming contract period. Your statement should clearly communicate why you are undertaking the task and/or what you hope to accomplish. To help yourself keep focused on the goals, it is recommended that you include benchmark dates or completion dates. Some goals/objectives may take more than one year to accomplish, so be sure to specify what part of your goals/objectives are planned for completion. Be realistic.
