

Dear FCDS Community,

The search for our next Head of School is underway, and our consultants from The Education Group will be on campus next week.

Bob Veto and Dave Davies will host open meetings for parents on Tuesday, April 29, from 2:30-3:15 p.m. and Wednesday, April 30, from 8:30-9:15 a.m. in the Niblock Center. All parents are welcome to attend. The purpose of the meetings is to help Bob and Dave become familiar with FCDS and learn about the community's priorities and hopes for our next Head. They will discuss the search process and answer your questions.

Another opportunity to provide input is the community survey. Thank you for completing it by May 5.

We look forward to your participation in the process. Please refer to the Head of School Search webpage for updates, and feel free to contact us with any questions.
