Again, the Destronians invasion starts, but the Cybertronians defend the peace of the universe and of their own planet by their magnificent work. In the meantime, Cybertronians have set their defense headquarters on a peaceful planet Asenia to build then second Cybertron. 3. Former Destron Headquarters, Cybertron

(Galvatron jumps out from nowhere)

Galvatron: “My brave soldiers, our mother computer, Vector Sigma is open equally both Destron and Asenia. We, the Destronians will be the first one to monopolize the will of the mother computer. And then, off we go back to the planet Cybertron!”

Weird Wolf: “Wait a minute, great demolition emperor Galvatron. Please leave this to us , the Destron Headmasters.”

Galvatron: “Weird Wolf, mind your own business! You are jus a new Headmaster.”

Weird Wolf: "I'd like to show you the power of Destron Headmasters. We are going to destroy the sensor base!"

(Weird Wolf jumped out)

Weird Wolf: There! Take this!
(Throws a red electromagnetic ball which appears on his palm. Sensor pole explodes.)

Scal: (Jumps out)
Scal, set to go!
(Throws a yellow electromagnetic ball which appears on his palm but the ball misses the target.)

Weird Wolf: Watch out, Scal!

Scal: Disaster, master.
(flips the yellow ball which comes down after transformation with his tail. The ball blasts near the sensor pole.)

Wipe: (Jumps out)
Wipe is here!
(Blue electromagnetic ball appears in his palm. When he blows at it, it flies off with a fierce speed. Sensor pole explodes.)

5. An institution on Cybertron

(Red, blue and yellow electromagnetic balls come flying. Explosions everywhere. Cybertronian soldiers appear and guide the people to shelter.

Soldier: Evacuate to port. Quick!
(Spike and Carly are seen among the evacuating citizens.)

Spike: Just what happened here?

Carly: The Destronians must be here. Better hurry up and ask Asenia for support.....!

(Galvatron comes charging. Weird Wolf, Scal and Wipe follow.)

Destronian: Sensor base does not function anymore. ----- Forward!

(blows away a Cybertronian soldier who tried to stop them.)

Weird Wolf (?) transforms into wolf, bites at the Cybertronian soldier and swings him around.

Wipe jumps into the air, transforms into a bat and emits psychic wave. The Cybertron soldier is under hypnosis. Scal, in the shape of an alligator, bites the soldier.)

Scal: A second helping.
(Looks up into the sky, he suddenly feels sleepy and rolls over.

Blurr: Comboy, I made the Throttlebots guard the rescue fleet.

Comboy: Rodinus, what do you think has happened to Cybertron?

Rodinus: Perhaps, something went wrong in Vector Sigma because the Matrix energy was opened...!

Comboy: It's gonna be a big problem if Destronians takes over Vector Sigma!

Blurr: It's my fault. I didn't notice the unusual state of Vector Sigma. I'm ashamed of myself as an information officer!

Comboy: Wreck Gar, request support from Earth!

Wreck Gar: OK.

Comboy: Alright, I'll be there!

Rodinus: Meister, guard him!

Meister: OK!

(Spike, with his eyes on the panel screen, operates the buttons.)

Spike. God! I knew it!

Char: What's the matter, Spike?

Spike: Vector Sigma is back in the balanced condition.

Char: Hmmm....That's why Destronians are trying to control mother computer to act on their benefit.

Carly: If it happens, Cybertron will be under the control of Destronians.

Spike: Because the energy of Matrix had been released, Cybertron is no longer in control of it.

Char: We'd better protect the Computer Base! Call Comboy at once!

13. Town, Cybertron

(Citizens escape. Red, yellow and blue electromagnetic balls fall on them and explode. Galvatron, Scal and Wipe arrive.)

Daniel: See, didn't I tell you, Wheelie? We can't ever make it to Cybertron!

Wheelie: It's too late! We are in part of the battle anyway!

(Dinosaurer keeps attacking.)

Wheelie: C'mon , this way!

(Wheelie and Daniel cross the suspension bridge. Dinosaurer follows them. But the bridge breaks as Dinosaurer made half the way. Down into the valley, he falls.)

Char: I remembered something which happened four million years ago....

Spike: Four million years ago?

Char: When we had that huge confusion in the cosmic war. Somehow, someone escaped from Cybertron after the war was over. Why? Maybe that person know this kind of thing would happen....

Spike: But, Char, I wouldn't say your story: useless, but I don't think it can solve our problem now.

Char: Oh, I'm sorry. I just....

Blurr: Oh, what's that?

(A huge battleship on the screen.)

Char: What the hell is that? Wasn't it a star?!

Spike: It's a ship?!

Rodimus: Must be a battleship. Looks like a large-scale one!

Curly: Which side is it on? Or is it....!

Rodimus: No, can't be irrelevant. It's got to have something to do with this chaos.

Blurr: What if it's our enemy?
