Essential Question	What are the 5 C's of Credit?
Class Outline	1) Yesterday you were introduced to the concept of your Credit Score, and how to keep your credit safe. We left off with you reading the article: Teen Credit History Article. After you read each section, you were summarizing the section using a Tweet Summary Sheet. When you are finished with the Tweet Sheet, turn it in and I will work on scanning the document and emailing it back to you. 5 C's of CREDIT POSTER DESIGN: 2) Once you have finished your Tweet Summary, you will design a poster for the 5 C's of Credit. Mr. V introduced the concept of the 5 C's of Credit yesterday. Companies look at the following ideas to help determine your Credit score: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Character</li> <li>2. Capacity</li> <li>3. Capital</li> <li>4. Collateral</li> <li>5. Conditions</li> </ol> Based on those 5 C's do some research to determine what each one means. Explain in a poster design why each of the 5 C's are important for Teens to understand when dealing with credit. You can use the internet to research the 5 C's of Credit, or page 482 in the Personal Finance Book. Your Poster should include the following details:

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ List the 5 C's of Credit</li> <li>○ Provide a definition</li> <li>○ Provide at least 1 picture for each of the 5 C's to help clarify the concept.</li> </ul> Here is a sample poster Mr. V made to give you an idea. 3) Make sure that you have posted the following assignments on your Credit Page: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Minimum Payment Introduction</li> <li>● Tweet Summary Sheet</li> </ul>
