Subject: Review article submission

I (The corresponding author) certify that the submitted review article is well written by myself and team members, if any. We have designed the manuscript to meet the journal guidelines. This work was neither submitted nor published in any of the journal/ online platforms. I have reviewed the final version of the manuscript and approved it for submission and publication.

We agree and provide rights to the journal to scrutinize the submitted manuscript for plagiarism and other quality-related enquiries and proceed to the next steps or send it back for correction or reject the manuscript if it does not fit the journal. Upon acceptance of the manuscript, the journal holds the right to keep the article open access, freely downloaded by anyone, circulated on online platforms, in reprints, etc.

Thank you!
