

Çatalhöyük

Please look at the web site and handwrite the answers in your notebook. The answers do not need to be in complete sentences, but they should be complete enough so that you can go back and reference them when studying for a quiz or test.

Ready?

Çatalhöyük

<http://www.smm.org/catal/introduction/>

1. What made the people at Çatalhöyük different from most of the human beings living 8-10,000 years ago?
2. What is the definition of Çatalhöyük?
3. What did the people who lived there call it? *(Tricky)
4. What are they studying at Çatalhöyük? (For this question, quote the exact text)
5. What is the distance between Çatalhöyük and AIS?

Timeline

http://www.smm.org/catal/mysteries/first_city/timeline/?flashVar=1

1. What historical event happened immediately before Çatalhöyük on the timeline ?
2. What historical event happened immediately after?
3. Find any other historical event on the timeline? What did you choose? What is the time difference between that event and Çatalhöyük?

How did the Mound at Çatalhöyük form?

http://www.smm.org/catal/activities/mound_formation/

1. What was Çatalhöyük like in the beginning?
2. How were new houses built?
3. Why do you think this is such an awesome place for archaeologists to dig?

What did the people of Çatalhöyük eat?

Neolithic Recipes

http://www.smm.org/catal/mysteries/what_were_they_eating/neolithic_kitchen/recipes/

and Seeds

http://www.smm.org/catal/mysteries/what_were_they_eating/seeds/?flashVar=1

Look at the three recipes and the list of seeds. Make a grocery list for what you would need to find in order to have dinner?

Çatalhöyük House

http://www.smm.org/catal/mysteries/first_city/tour_city/catal_house/?flashVar=1

Create a chart in your notebook. It should look something like this:

	Çatalhöyük	My Home
What are the walls made out of?
What is the kitchen like?
What decorations are there?
Where is food stored?
Where are dead relatives buried?
What is the roof like?
What is the entrance like?

Takeaway: What was life like for people in Çatalhöyük compared to life for people today?