

FREEZE! (v.1.0)

A tauntaun can't save Luke from this Survivor snowstorm!

Welcome all Snow Misers and Scrooges to Freeze! In this free-for-all winter themed gamemode, your goal is to both survive your foes and the very elements!

THE TWIST

You and your friends, imaginary or not, have just rented out a small, rickety cabin in the alpine mountaintops. Unfortunately, poor planning has forced you to outcast one of yourselves from the cabin and into a terrible snowstorm.

When players send in their attacks, their target gets one nomination for the vote. Each attack against a player adds one more vote against them, Once all attacks are sent in, the votes are put in a !pick and the chosen player is sent out! They are frozen and roll out of 50 on all rolls.

For Example:

Player List : Losedude Hurricane, Private_PenQuin, Captain Skywalker, Quarkz, The Vexinator

Losedude Hurricane	attacks	Private_PenQuin
Private_PenQuin	attacks	Quarkz
Captain Skywalker	attacks	Quarkz
Quarkz	attacks	Losedude Hurricane
The Vexinator	attacks	Quarkz

Due to these attacks, the host would type:

!pick Quarkz, Quarkz, Quarkz, Private_QenQuin, Losedude Hurricane

The chosen user then suffers the effects of the snowstorm.

Note: Alliances are not official but secret truces can keep you safe from the cold!

Just be sure you can trust your allies
