Subject Line: Are you tired of being FAT?

Every time after having a bath you look at yourself at the mirror,

You feel your soul is in indescribable pain and your loose skin

Makes you horrible.

Also, knowing that there are some guys out there who are

GRINDING at the gym, tracking their calories, every day being stronger, and your fat gut loves eating cinnamon rolls, come on man WAKE UP, for how long you're going to be that way, will you be pleased on you're deathbed having your flabby boobs

The choice is yours and yours alone

So what will you do?
