

William M. Clark Scholarship

The William M. Clark scholarship was established by a very dear friend of Mr. and Mrs. Clark to be presented to a St. Joseph School graduate to attend UCA. This friend established the scholarship anonymously because he wanted Bill's life to be remembered by many young people, and he doesn't think one should do good works for any personal recognition. Mr. Clark helped him, so he wanted to pay it forward by helping others have a chance at success.

"I have always felt that the recipient of this scholarship is given the opportunity to go forward and to dedicate a portion of their lives to being a true friend to others."—Mrs. Clark.
