

John Glenn: Summarizing

A summary is usually 3-4 sentences of your own words and includes only the most important information. For example, a summary would include that John Glenn was in the Senate but not the fact that it was for 25 years. Think about how you would explain the information about John Glenn to another classmate (who has not read the article). Now, fill in the John Glenn summary section.

Title: Who is John Glenn? Purpose: To inform about John Glenn
Questions:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• What did John Glenn do after he left NASA?</li><li>• What did NASA do to honor Glenn?</li><li>• What happened on John Glenn's second spaceflight?</li><li>• What is the Distinguished Flying Cross?</li></ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• He was in the Senate for 25 years and ran for presidency (but didn't receive the nomination). He was a temporary professor for Ohio University.</li><li>• NASA renamed its field center in Cleveland, Ohio, "John H. Glenn Research Center"</li><li>• When he was 77, John Glenn was the oldest person to fly in space. NASA collected data on how his flights and his health.</li><li>• a military decoration awarded to any officer or enlisted member of the United States Armed Forces who distinguishes himself or herself in support of operations by "heroism or extraordinary achievement while participating in an aerial flight"</li></ul>
Summary:

