

Name: _____

Period: _____

Date: _____

Midterm Election Mini-Project

Directions: Use the following link to access critical information about the 2018 midterm election. Research the midterm election and then answer the questions that follow.

<https://www.nytimes.com/interactive/2018/10/02/us/politics/2018-midterm-election-guide.html>

Question	Answer/ Response
1. When are the midterm elections?
2. What's at stake at in Washington? (1-2 sentences)
3. Who is going to win the House?
4. If Democrats take the House, what happens?
5. If Republicans keep the House, what happens?
6. How many Americans live in competitive congressional districts?
7. Does my vote matter?
8. What role is social media playing in the midterms?

9. What kind of policy discussions have dominated races?
10. Which Republican-held seats must the Democrats win to have any shot at capturing the Senate?
11. What sort of Republican candidates made it through the primaries?
12. Is it really the "Year of the Woman"?
13. What candidates are making Democrats excited?
14. What candidates are making Republicans excited?
15. Are there ballot measures worth watching?
16. Are the midterms just a referendum on Mr. Trump?

17. Ok, the midterms end, and then what?
--	--