DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Outside of her natural glow, Micaela is not easy to spot. She routinely dresses modestly to avoid prying eyes, and if possible she will always dawn accessories that limit full facial recognition. Hats, glasses, and the like. We are unsure if she does this as an attempt to hide her identity from the world, or as an attempt at hiding her whereabouts from us.

PERSONALITY DOSSIER

POSITIVES Genuine team-player, strong sense of direction & desire to protect. Completes the mission at any cost.

NEGATIVES Easily thrown off when angered, incredibly emotional.

MICAELA. (JUDGE)

Micaela is by all accounts a good samaritan at face value. She maintains a positive light even amongst the worst criminals in her line of work, giving everyone the same respect, assistance and love regardless of criminal background. She seems to never turn away a needy hand. However...

ANGEL. (JURY)

As Angel, Micaela becomes less of an idealist. While she makes every attempt to save who she can, she recognizes who is beyond saving. Everyone doesn't deserve a second chance to her, and everyone won't get one around her. It's almost frightening watching her.

THE DARKNESS. (EXECUTIONER.)

Micaela suffers from an unique layering of personality disorders that materializes as hallucination, anger, paranoia and more. Though kept at bay with medicine provided an unverified identity, she is prone to fits of delusion that can leave a city leveled.

KNOWN PREFERENCES & TRAITS & BEHAVIORS

WEAKNESSES ANGEL seems weak to both gamma energy & weapons of divine nature. While SHIELD has the capabilities of neutralizing her, it would likely take the majority of our explosive yield.

DISLIKES Angel has extreme distaste for being out of control in everything. Business, relationships, fighting, etc. She particularly can't stand not having the moral high ground.

FEARS Angel seems fearless, but if I were a god, I would be too.

STRENGTHS Angel seems capable of adapting to any physical, emotional or social environment with ease.

HOBBIES Micaela enjoys musical theater on her off time, quite the musician on her own as well.

RECORDED CAPACITIES

SUPERNATURAL CONDITION — Micaela possesses a god-like physicality. Not only can she lift in excess of fifty tons, she can move or fly at speeds rivaling the world’s fastest aircrafts. She boasts invulnerability to common forms of damage, as well the ability to see, hear & smell far beyond the capacity of a human.

PHOTOKINESIS — Micaela can manipulate light in any capacity, able to focus it as blasts, piercing beams, powerful flashes of light and much more. It is said the light can purify her enemies, capable of calming her opposition and even healing them.

BATTLE ADAPTATION — Some of our lead reporters believe she gets stronger following a battle, much like how a muscle can be broken down to be built stronger. She demonstrates an impressive ability to always appear stronger during or after a powerful threat. I personally believe her ability is to be as powerful as she NEEDS to be...

ENERGY ABSORPTION - Micaela is capable of absorbing large amounts of energy not limited to only solar. We are unsure of her current battery capacity in regards to her absorption abilities.

ASSOCIATED CONNECTIONS
	DAVID ADAMS, LAW FIRM PARTNER, CLOSE FRIEND. — DAVID ADAMS IS MICAELA’S LAW PARTNER AND CLOSE FRIEND. They have been close friends for approx. 3 ½ years, however it is our intent to stir this friendship. Our contingencies cannot get closer with one another.
	MEDICINE PROVIDER, ??? — It is unsure why or how, but we are tracking Angel’s medication to be coming from Vulsteria. It is the only one that works, until we can reverse engineer it.
	COMMANDER LACY, ??? — A person of interest in regards to the creation of SHIELD’s premier hero defense force. Beyond the creation “the Avengers” the commander seems to have a bigger interest in Angel. I hear his daughter is real big fan of her. Maybe that’s why . . .
KNOWN SKILLSET
RECORDED CAPACITIES
PATTERN RECOGNITION - Micaela’s intelligence is likely attributed to her ability to recognize patterns in her opposition. With this knowledge, she can either replicate the pattern or she can disrupt it. She uses this ability often to determine if someone is lying in court, to read someones fighting ability, and to replicate music she hears in the theater. CHARISMA - Notated as “charmspeak” Micaela often can manipulate others. This is not only due in part to her pattern recognition abilities, but also her photokinetic aura. MUSICAL ABILITY - As a byproduct of her “charmspeak”, Micaela is an excellent singer, and as a byproduct of her pattern recognition she can play almost any piano piece to near- perfection. WILL POWER - Her will power on its own isn’t more impressive than the next athlete, however she can be further endowed through gospel song or scripture.

SUBJECT: ANGEL

Micaela's history is more than a mystery. There are seldom any sightings of this woman within the past twenty-two years and no recorded history whatsoever. Our strongest researchers do not believe her to be alien in nature, but rather, ethereal. Her lineage cannot be aptly tied to Mars, Krypton, Thraxi, Tamaran or any known alien race. Rather, she exudes an ethereal energy that some of our more experienced agents believe to be connected to antiquated poems & scriptures. They believe her to be everything she says she is. AN ANGEL.

This is not all great news. If she truly is an angel amongst us, ask, why was she sent here? What is to come

PROJECT EDEN // TOWER OF BABEL (SPECIAL AGENT HAULEY)

The details of this experiment are beyond murky. Just after the first human contact with aliens, SHIELD made a temporary truce with Vulsteria in an attempt to create weaponry powerful enough to defend Earth from incursion. The project went on for months until Commander Lacy severed alignment with Vulsteria's leader due to morality conflict. Regardless, the only salvageable technology was the creation of the "Zeta Tube", a high risk portal that generated so much energy it caused an "ethereal" incursion. I'd bet money that's where Angel comes from. Wherever this zeta tube leads us to. I have to stop here though, Commander Lacy has ordered a halt on this investigation. Says he wants me to direct my attention to "SAINT", that "Hope" brat & the troubling usage of gamma energy in third world countries. I think he's hiding more than he's letting on.

I think I plan to get to the bottom of it.
