Accepted students will take all of their classes virtually. The virtual classes will have both synchronous and asynchronous components, and students can expect to have regularly scheduled live class sessions every week during the school day, as well as independent learning activities. Students can still participate in after-school extracurricular activities in their HCSD high school.	VPOC Principal: Ley Hathcock Ley.Hathcock@hallco.org

NOTE: Out of District Transfers (not currently in the Hall County School System) must be approved by the Hall County District office prior to any Program of Choice offer of acceptance. District decisions take precedence, so POCs must hold any potential out of district applications until District decisions have been made. The Out of District Transfer Process for new students opens March 2nd. Once admitted to be an Out of District Transfer, the POC may send invitations to attend provided room is available. Please call Melissa Scott at the Central Office with any questions regarding transfers.

NOTE: The dates for high school transfers:

- HB 251 transfer requests in the district open Monday, Nov 2 at 8:00 AM.
- Out of District (first time applicants) requests open March 2, 2027 with a Deadline of March 22, 2027 (ALL POC applications, even those asking for transfers should still be submitted by the DEC 14th Deadline).
